The Outcome of the Curriculum and Syllabus:

Students who participated in the survey emphasized that they had 'good' to 'excellent' expected outcome from the courses they have undergone and more than 90% rated the allocation of credits and hours to the courses as 'good' and 'excellent'. There was a positive response to the question on the syllabus of each course covering the recent trends and developments while meagre number expressed their dissatisfaction. Most students responded good to excellent to the question on the various papers in terms of their relevance to the specialization streams whereas 9.1% of the students recorded that the relevance was poor and average. This goes to show that The Tamil Nadu Dr Ambedkar Law University has created a well-structured course with appropriate provisions for teaching and learning that ensures student satisfaction as well as accomplishes the objectives of each course.

Teaching Methodology & Assessment Strategies:

Most of the students who participated in the survey opined that the methodology used by the teachers were good to excellent whereas the remaining noted that they were poor and average. Students appreciated the objectivity of assessment and evaluation while the remaining 9.2% of them expressed that it was average and poor. TNDALU ensures that students do not face bias in any way and can focus on what is being taught. All the faculty, for the most part, use up-to-date methods and technology to impart the knowledge easily and effectively. While some may not be up to the standards of the university, we are doing the necessary steps to correct that as well and strive towards perfection.

Learning Resources, Facilities and Guidance:

With regard to the provisions that are available for students accompaniment in the college, maximum students expressed that they were good to excellent while the around 7% noted that it was average and poor. Most of the students expressed that the learning resources which are available in the college (Library, ICT Provisions and others) were excellent and the remaining 5% of them expressed their dissatisfaction. There was also a similar response of satisfaction, more than 90% when it came to various provisions of extension and co-curricular activities of the college while the remaining 6.6% of them showed dissatisfaction. TNDALU has best in class facilities, specifically designed and created with the needs of the students and faculty in mind. The response from the survey reflects the very same, thus showing that the university was successful in its aim and can continue the same while also adapting to the rapidly changing environment.

Overall Impression of the Programs & Facilities:

The overall rating of the various programmes offered and the facilities available in the institution reflected as 95.2% of the students' response as good to excellent and the remaining 4.8% recorded as average. Once again, the survey response indicates that the essence of the university's vision and mission has been successfully accomplished. Student satisfaction being the key indicator for any facility, the response received has been overwhelmingly positive showing that the university leads by example.

Conclusion:

The consolidated feedback report is shared at the HODs/Coordinators/Official Meeting and also with the departments for further appropriate actions and decision makings.

INTERNAL QUALITY ASSURANCE CELL (IQAC)

A REPORT ON THE FEEDBACK OF FACULTY 2020-2021

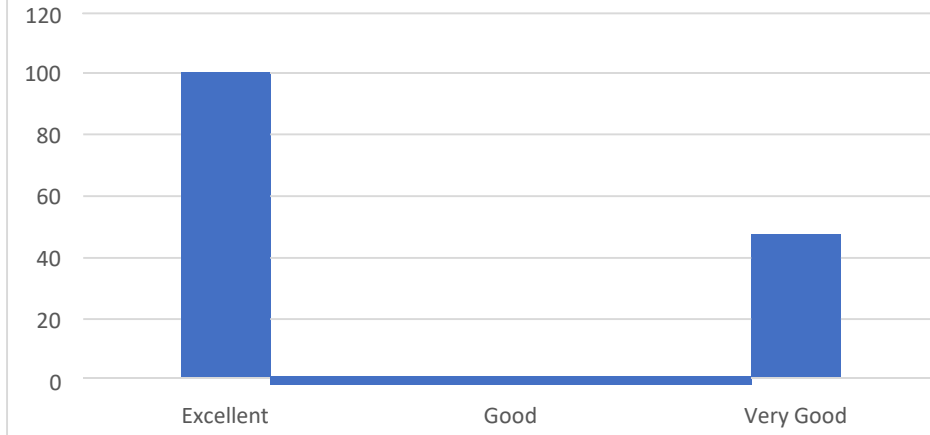

The Tamil Nadu Dr Ambedkar Law University, a unique institution has been imparting legal education throughout the State of Tamil Nadu and as a measure of sustaining the quality of legal education at global level and its administrative tasks, the institution obtains feedback from the teaching fraternity. It has been collected for the academic years 2016-2017, 2017-2018, 2018-2019, 2019-2020 and 2020-2021. IQAC conducted an online feedback session where the questionnaire includes important aspects of the curriculum like the need-based importance of the curriculum, clarity of course objectives, the effectiveness of course contents and activities, teaching-learning-assessment, various courses under CBCS etc., The Feedback Analysis Report for the academic year 2020-2021 is given below.

For the Year 2020-21:

Count of Course Outcomes are well defined and clear to Staff and Students

Count of Course Content has enough scope for development of analytical, logical, technical and creative skills to the students

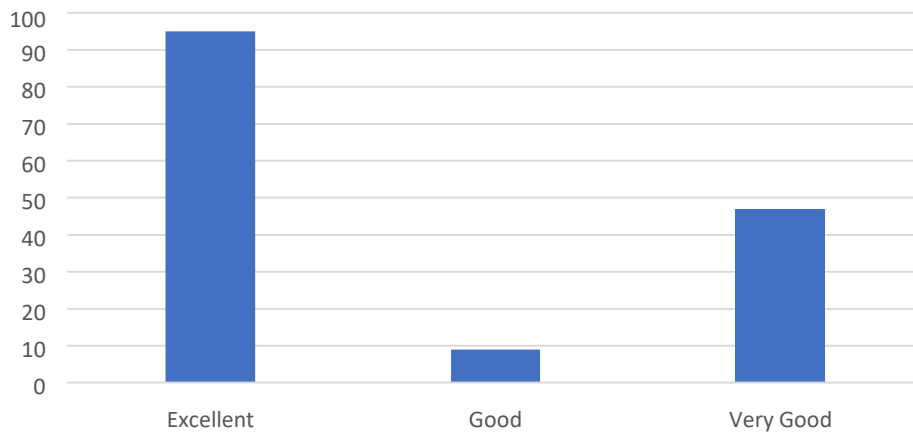

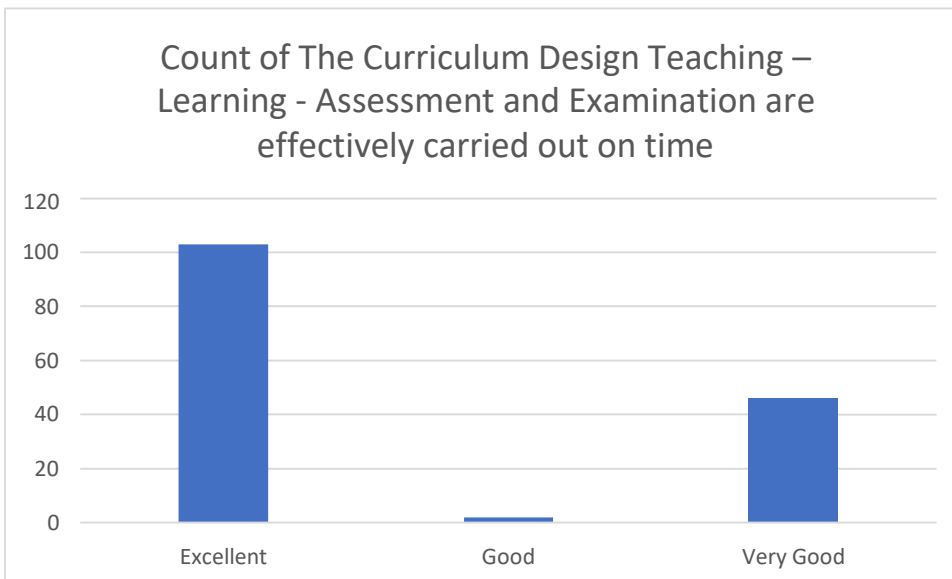

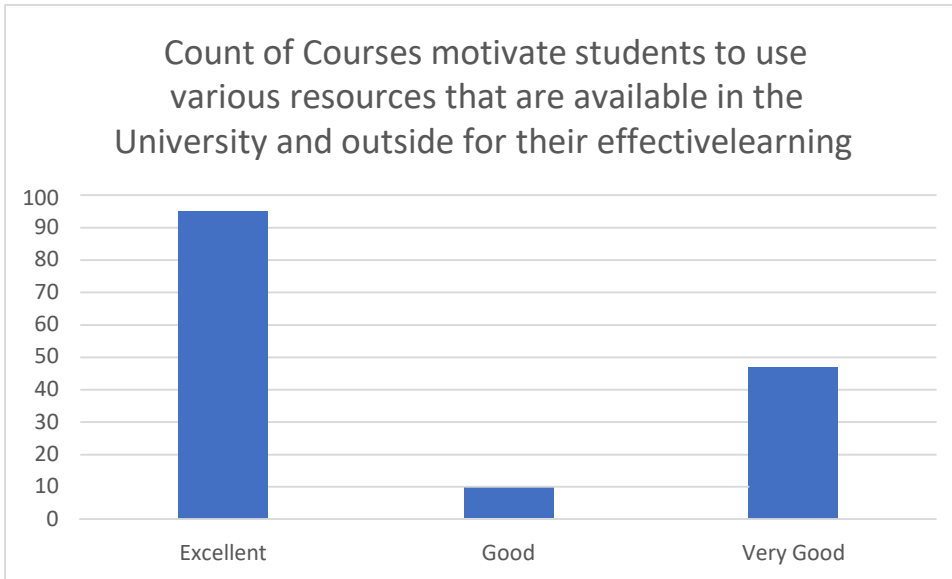

Count of Course activities (Internships / Field Visit / Guest Lectures / Assignments / Seminars / Others) are relevant for development of various skills for employment and self-employment

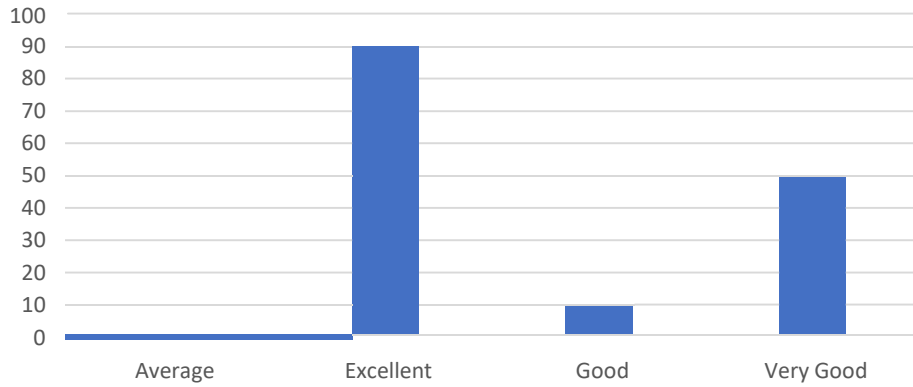

Count of The Course/Syllabus has good balance between theory and Clinical Practice

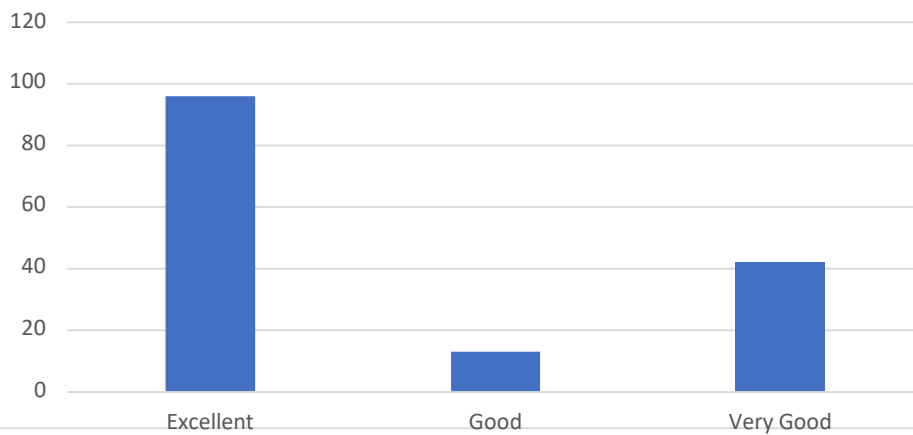

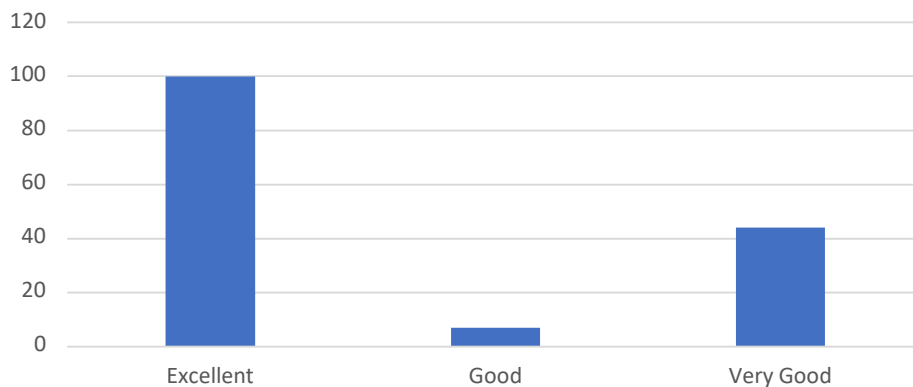

Count of The Assessment and Evaluation System objectively measure the Course Outcomes (COs) and Program Specific Outcome (PSOs)

Count of The Curriculum contains a wide range of Courses under Choice Base Credit System

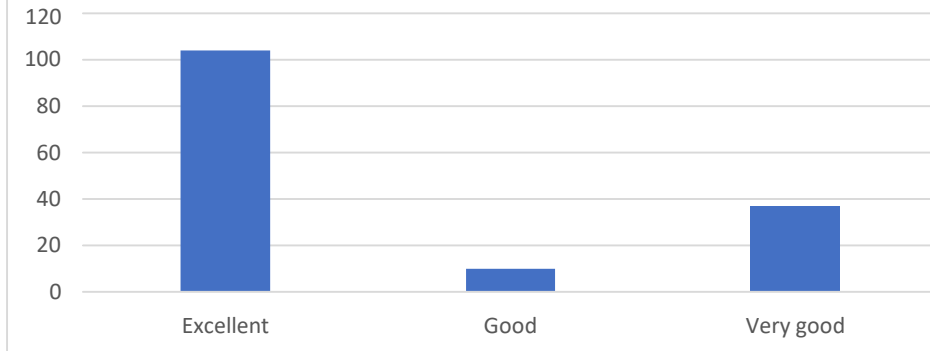

Count of The College has enough relevant resources which are updated regularly for Teaching Learning purposes

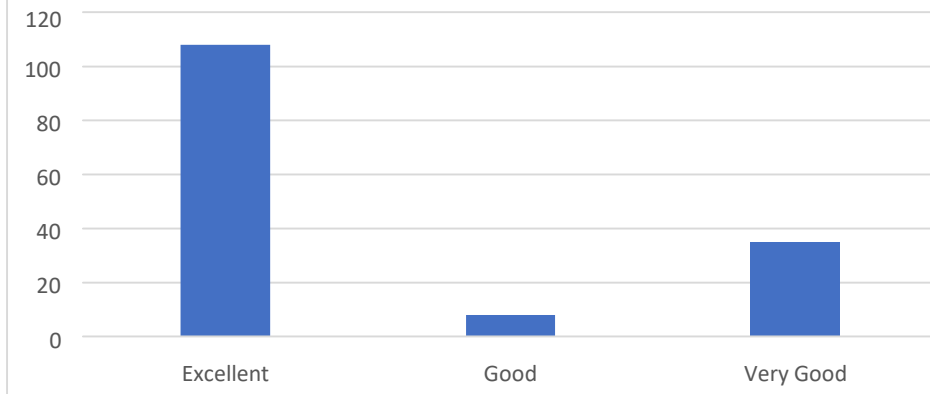

Count of The academic freedom and opportunity that are available for the Curriculum Development, Administration and Evaluation in the University is:

Count of The opportunity available out of the Course / Syllabus for the enhancement of my knowledge and perspective in the discipline is:

Need-based importance of the curriculum:

From the perspective of the teachers, the course has been designed in the best possible method. The feedback indicates an entirely positive response with 85.2% of the faculty hailing the curriculum as excellent, 11.1% as very good and just 3.7% claiming it as good. The course has been designed keeping in mind the recent trends in the relevant subject matter. While the faculty are generally expected to keep themselves updated with such trends, the course itself ensures this so that the faculty can approve of the curriculum design.

Clarity of course objectives:

The faculty has given an overwhelmingly positive response with 85.2% saying that the course objectives are defined in an excellent manner and the remaining 14.8% saying that it's very good. This highlights that the course is well-structured and well-defined so that the students as well as faculty know what needs to be done to fulfil the objectives of that particular course.

Effectiveness of course contents and activities:

Any well-developed course requires that the students work well beyond the defined borders. The objectives are not limited to completion of the course alone but encourage the students to develop additional skills such as analytical, logical, technical, and creative skills. The teachers have opined that the course allows students to do so effectively. 77.8% have claimed it has excellent and 22.2% have said that it is very good. With regards to balance between theory and clinical practice, 74.1% have rated it as excellent and 25.9% have rated it as very good. The course emphasizes heavily on practical learning with a mandatory internship for all students. In the response of the teachers, many of whom have knowledge of practice as advocates, shows that such emphasis is well-intended. Finally, in response to the motivation received by students to utilise the facilities of the university as well as facilities outside for effective learning, 66.7% of the faculty have given a response of 'excellent' and 33.3% have responded as 'very good'.

Teaching-learning assessment:

75% of the teachers believe that the teaching-learning assessment is carried out in an excellent manner while the remaining 25% still feel it is very good. While the teachers themselves are liable to undergo performance appraisals, they themselves are qualified to know how and when such assessment must be undertaken. Thus, the response shows that the university's methods are excellent.
