(3) The Syndicate shall report to the Government through the Vice-Chancellor, the action, if any, which is proposed to be taken or has been taken upon the result of such inspection or inquiry. Such report shall be submitted within such time as the Government may direct.

(4) Where the Syndicate does not take action to the satisfaction of the Government within a reasonable time, the Government may, after considering any explanation furnished or representation made by the Syndicate, issue such directions as they may think fit and the Syndicate shall comply with such directions. In the event of the Syndicate not complying with such directions within such time as may be fixed in that behalf by the Government, the Government shall have power to appoint any person or body to comply with such directions and make such orders as may be necessary for the expenses thereof.
CHAPTER III

OFFICERS OF THE UNIVERSITY

9. The University shall consist of the following officers, namely:

(1) the Chancellor;
(2) the Pro-Chancellor;
(3) the Vice-Chancellor;
(4) the Registrar;
(5) the Finance Officer;
(6) the Controller of Examinations; and
(7) such other persons as may be declared by statutes to be officers of the University.

10. (1) The Governor of Tamil Nadu shall be the Chancellor of the University. He shall, by virtue of his office, be the head of the University and President of the Academic Senate and shall, when present, preside at the meetings of the Academic Senate and at any convocation of the University and confer degrees, titles, diplomas or other academic distinctions upon persons entitled to receive them.

(2) Where power is conferred upon the Chancellor to nominate persons to the authorities, the Chancellor shall, in consultation with the Vice-Chancellor, and to the extent necessary, nominate persons to represent the interests not otherwise adequately represented.

(3) The Chancellor may, of his own motion or on application, call for and examine the record of any officer or authority of the University in respect of any proceedings to satisfy himself as to the legality of such proceedings or the correctness, legality or propriety of any decision taken or order passed therein, and if, in any case, it appears to the Chancellor that any such proceedings, decision or order should be modified, annulled, reversed or remitted for reconsideration, he may pass orders accordingly:

Provided that every application to the Chancellor for the exercise of the powers under this sub-section shall be preferred within three months from the date on which the proceedings, decision or order to which the application relates was communicated to the applicant:

Provided further that no order prejudicial to any person shall be passed unless such person has been given an opportunity of making his representation.

(4) The Chancellor shall exercise such other powers and perform such other duties as may be conferred on him by or under the provisions of this Act.

11. (1) The Minister in-charge of the portfolio of law in the State of Tamil Nadu shall be the Pro-Chancellor of the University.

(2) In the absence of the Chancellor or during the Chancellor’s inability to act, the Pro-Chancellor shall exercise all the powers and perform all the functions of the Chancellor.

(3) The Pro-Chancellor shall exercise such other powers and perform such other functions as may be conferred on him by or under this Act.

12. (1) Every appointment of Vice-Chancellor shall be made by the Chancellor from out of a panel of three names recommended by the Committee referred to in subsection (2) and such panel shall not contain the name of any member of the said Committee:

Provided that if the Chancellor does not approve any of the persons in the panel so recommended by the Committee, he may take steps to constitute another Committee, in accordance with sub-section (2) to give a fresh panel of three different names and shall appoint one of the persons named in the fresh panel as Vice-Chancellor.

(2) For the purpose of sub-section (1), the Committee shall consist of three persons of whom one shall be nominated by the Government, one shall be nominated by the Academic Senate and one shall be nominated by the Syndicate:

Provided that the person so nominated shall not be a member of any of the authorities of the University.

(3) The Vice-Chancellor shall hold office for a period of three years and shall be eligible for re-appointment for a further period of three years:

Provided that no person shall hold the office of the Vice-Chancellor for more than six years in the aggregate:

provided further that –

(a) the Chancellor may direct that a Vice-Chancellor whose term of office has expired, shall continue in office for such period, not exceeding a total period of one year, as may be specified in the direction:

(b) the Vice-Chancellor may, by writing under his hand addressed to the Chancellor and after giving two months notice, resign his office:

Provided also that a person appointed as Vice-Chancellor shall retire from office if, during the term of his office or any extension thereof, he completes the age of sixty-five years.

(4) When any temporary vacancy occurs in the office of the Vice-Chancellor or when the Vice-Chancellor is, by reason of illness, absence or for any other reason, unable to exercise the powers and perform the duties of his office, the senior most Professor of the University shall exercise the powers and perform the duties of the Vice-Chancellor till the Syndicate makes the requisite arrangements for exercising the powers and performing the duties of the Vice-Chancellor.

(5) The Vice-Chancellor shall be a whole-time officer of the University and his emoluments and other terms and conditions of service shall be as follows:

(a) There shall be paid to the Vice-Chancellor a fixed salary of seven thousand six hundred rupees per mensem or such higher salary as may be fixed by the Government from time to time and he shall be entitled to such other perquisites as may be fixed by the statutes;

(b) The Vice-Chancellor shall be entitled to such terminal benefits and allowances as may be fixed by the Syndicate with the approval of the Chancellor from time to time:

Provided that, where an employee of –

(i) the University or college or institution maintained by or affiliated to that University; or

(ii) any other University or colleges or institutions maintained by or affiliated to that University, is appointed as Vice-Chancellor, he shall be allowed to continue to contribute to the Provident Fund to which he is a subscriber, and the contribution of the University shall be limited to what he had been contributing immediately before his appointment as Vice-Chancellor;

(c) The Vice-Chancellor shall be entitled to travelling allowance at such rates as may be fixed by the Syndicate;

(d) The Vice-Chancellor shall be entitled to earned leave on full pay at one-eleventh of the periods spent by him on active service:

Provided that when the earned leave applied for by the Vice-Chancellor in sufficient time before the date of expiry of the term of his office, is refused by the Chancellor in the interests of the University and if he does not avail of the leave before the date of expiry of the term of his office, he shall be entitled to draw cash equivalent to leave salary after relinquishment of his office in respect of earned leave at his credit subject to a maximum of two hundred and forty days;

(e) The Vice-Chancellor shall be entitled on medical grounds or otherwise, to leave without pay for a period not exceeding three months during the term of his office:

Provided that such leave may be converted into leave on full pay to the extent to which he is entitled to earned leave under clause (d).

13. (1) If, in the opinion of the Chancellor, the Vice-Chancellor wilfully omits or refuses to carry out the provisions of this Act, or abuses the powers vested on him, or misbehaves or mismanages or his conduct involves moral turpitude or if it otherwise appears to the Chancellor that the continuance of the Vice-Chancellor in office is detrimental to the interests of University, the Chancellor may direct the Pro-
Chancellor to constitute a Committee consisting of not less than three members to enquire into the matter and place the report of the Committee before the Chancellor.

(2) The Chancellor shall, after considering the report of the Committee, if satisfied that the continuance of the Vice-Chancellor in office will be detrimental to the interests of the University or if he is found guilty of all or any of the charges by order, remove the Vice-Chancellor;

Provided that no order shall be passed under this section unless a reasonable opportunity of being heard is given to the Vice-Chancellor.

14. (1) The Vice-Chancellor shall be the academic head and principal executive officer of the University.

(2) The Vice-Chancellor shall, in the absence of the Chancellor and Pro-Chancellor, preside at the meetings of the Academic Senate and at any convocation of the University and confer degrees, titles, diplomas or other academic distinctions upon persons entitled to receive them.

(3) The Vice-Chancellor shall exercise control over the affairs of the University and shall be responsible for the due maintenance of discipline in the University.

(4) The Vice-Chancellor shall ensure that faithful observance of the provisions of this Act, the statutes, ordinances and regulations made thereunder and he may exercise all powers as may be necessary for the purpose.

(5) The Vice-Chancellor shall give effect to the orders of the Syndicate regarding the appointment, suspension and dismissal of the teachers and other employees of the University and any other decision of the Syndicate.
(6) In any emergency which in the opinion of the Vice-Chancellor requires immediate action to be taken, he shall, by order, take such action as he deems necessary and shall, at the earliest opportunity report the action taken to such officer or authority or body as would have, in the ordinary course, dealt with the matter:

Provided that no such order shall be passed unless the person likely to be affected has been given a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

(7) Any person aggrieved by any order of the Vice-Chancellor under sub-section (6), may prefer an appeal to the Syndicate within thirty days from the date on which such order is communicated to him and the Vice-Chancellor shall give effect to the order passed by the Syndicate on such appeal.

(8) The Vice-Chancellor shall be ex-officio Chairman of the Syndicate, the Planning Board and the Finance Committee. The Vice-Chancellor shall be entitled to be present at, and to address, any meeting of any authority or other body of the University, but shall not be entitled to vote thereat unless he is member of such authority or body.

(9) The Vice-Chancellor shall have power to convene meeting of the Syndicate, the Academic Senate, the Planning Board and the Finance Committee.

(10) The Vice-Chancellor shall be responsible for the co-ordination and integration of teaching and research, extension education and curriculum development.

prescribed by the statutes.
39. (1) Statutes how made The Syndicate may from time to time, make statutes and amend or repeal the statutes in the manner hereafter provided in this section.

(2) The Academic Senate or the Vice-Chancellor may propose to the Syndicate the draft of any statute or of any amendments to or of repeal of a statute to be passed by the Syndicate and such draft shall be considered by the Syndicate at its next meeting;

Provided that the Vice-Chancellor shall not propose any amendment to any statute affecting the statutes, powers and constitution of any authority of the University until such authority has been given an opportunity of expressing its opinion and the opinion so expressed shall be considered by the Syndicate.

(3) The Syndicate may consider the draft proposed by the Academic Senate or the Vice-Chancellor under sub-section (2), and may either pass the draft or reject or return it with or without amendments to the Academic Senate or the Vice-Chancellor, as the case may be, for reconsideration.

(4) (a) Any member of the Syndicate may propose to the Syndicate the draft of a statute or any amendment to, or of repeal of a statute and the Syndicate, may either accept or reject the draft if it relates to matter not falling within the purview of the Academic Senate.

(b) In case such draft relates to a matter within the purview of the Academic Senate, the Syndicate shall refer it for consideration to the Academic Senate, which may either report to the Syndicate that it does not approve the draft or submit the draft to the Syndicate in such form as the Academic Senate may approve and the Syndicate may either pass with or without amendment or reject the draft.
(5) A statute or an amendment to, or repeal of a statute passed by the Syndicate shall be submitted to the Chancellor who may assent thereto or withhold his assent. A statute or an amendment to, or repeal of a statute passed by the Syndicate shall have no validity until it has been assented to by the Chancellor.

40. Subject to the provisions of this Act and the statutes, the ordinances may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:

(a) the admission of the students to the University and its affiliated colleges and the levy of fees for admission to the University and colleges;

(b) the courses of study leading to all degrees, diplomas and other academic distinctions of the University;

(c) the conditions under which the students shall be admitted to the courses of study leading to degrees, diplomas and other academic distinctions of the University;

(d) the conduct of examination of the University and the conditions subject to which students shall be admitted to such examinations;

(e) the manner in which exemption relating to the admission of students to examinations may be given;

(f) the conditions and mode of appointment and duties of examining bodies and examiners;

(g) the maintenance of discipline among the students of the University;
(h) the fees to be charged for courses of study, research, experiment and practical training and for admission to the examinations for degrees, diplomas and other academic distinctions of the University; and

(i) any other matter which by this Act or the statutes is required to be, or may be, prescribed by ordinances.

41. (1) In making ordinances, the Syndicate shall consult –

(a) the Boards of Studies when such ordinance affect the appointment and duties of examiners; and

(b) the Academic Senate when they affect the conduct of standard of examinations or the conditions of residence of students;

(2) All ordinances made by the Syndicate shall have effect from such date as the Syndicate may direct and every ordinance so made shall be submitted, as soon as may be, to the Chancellor and the Academic Senate and shall be considered by the Academic Senate at its next succeeding meeting.

(3) The Chancellor may direct that the operation of any ordinance shall be suspended until such time as the Academic Senate has had an opportunity of considering the same.

42. (1) The Syndicate and the Academic Senate may make regulations consistent with the provisions of this Act, the statutes and the ordinances for all or any of the matters which by this Act and the statutes and ordinances are to be provided for by regulations.

(2) All such regulations shall have effect from such date as the Syndicate or the Academic Senate, as the case may be, may appoint in that behalf.
CHAPTER VI

ADMISSION AND RESIDENCE OF STUDENTS

43. (1) No person shall be admitted to a course of study in the University for admission to the examination for degrees, diplomas or other academic distinctions of the University unless he,—

(a) has passed the examination prescribed therefor; and

(b) fulfills such other conditions as may be prescribed by the University.

(2) Every candidate for a University examination shall, unless exempted from the provisions of this sub-section by a special order of the Syndicate made on the recommendation of the Academic Senate, be enrolled as a member of a University college or of an affiliated college, as the case may be. Any such exemption may be made subject to such conditions as the Syndicate may deem fit.

(3) Students exempted from the provisions of sub-section (2) and students admitted in accordance with the conditions prescribed to courses of study other than courses of study for a degree shall be non collegiate students of the University.

44. Notwithstanding anything contained in section 43 or in any other provisions of this Act,—

(a) the Government shall be the competent authority to select and admit candidates to a course of study or training in the Government colleges and Selection and admission of candidates to colleges and institutions institutions and to a course of study or training in private colleges including aided colleges and institutions to which this Act applies in respect of seats under Government quota; and

(b) the Government may specify, by general or special order, the policy, guidelines, method and procedure for selection of candidates for admission to a course of study or training in Government colleges and institutions and to a course of study or training in private colleges including aided colleges and institutions to which this Act applies, in respect of seats under Government quota.

Explanation - In this section, the expression “seats under Government quota” means the seats reserved in a course of study of training in private colleges or private institutions to which this Act applies, to be filled in by the Government from among the approved list of candidates selected for admission.

45. No candidate shall be admitted to any University examination unless he is enrolled as a member of a University college or of an affiliated or approved college and has satisfied the requirements as to the attendance required under the regulations for the same or unless he is exempted from such requirements of enrollment or attendance or both by an order of the Syndicate passed on the recommendation of the Academic Senate made under the regulations prescribed. Exemptions granted under this section shall be subject to such conditions as the Syndicate may deem fit.
46. No attendance at instruction given in any college or institution other than that conducted, affiliated or approved by the University, shall qualify for admission to any examination of the University.

47. Every student of the University, other than a non-collegiate student, shall be required to reside in a hostel or under such other conditions as may be prescribed.
CHAPTER VII
UNIVERSITY FUNDS, ETC.

48. The University shall have a General Fund to which shall be credited,—

(a) its income from fees, grants, donations and gifts, if any;

(b) any contribution or grant made by the Central Government or any State Government or any local authority or the University Grants Commission or any other similar body or any corporation owned or controlled by the Central or any State Government;

(c) the endowments and other receipts; and

(d) the money borrowed by it.

49. The University may have such other funds as may be prescribed by the statutes.

50. The funds and all moneys of the University shall be managed in such manner as may be prescribed by the statutes.
CHAPTER VIII

CONDITIONS OF SERVICE

51. (1) The University shall institute for the benefit of its officers, teachers and other persons employed by the University, such pension, gratuity, insurance and provident fund as it may deem fit, in such manner and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed.

(2) Where the University has so instituted a provident fund under sub-section (1), the Government may declare that the provisions of the Provident Fund Act, 1925, shall apply to such fund as if the University were a local authority and the fund a Government Provident Fund.

(3) The University may, in consultation with the Finance Committee, invest the provident fund in such manner, as it may determine.

52. Subject to the provisions of this Act, the appointment, procedure for selection, pay and allowances and other conditions of service of officers, teachers and other persons employed in the University shall be such as may be prescribed by the statutes:

Provided that in regard to the appointments in the University, the rule of reservation as applicable to the appointments in the services under the Government shall be followed.

Explanation - For the purpose of this section, the word “officers” shall not include the Chancellor and the Pro-Chancellor.
53. (1) There shall be a Selection Committee for making recommendations to the Syndicate for appointment to the posts of Professor, Assistant Professor, Reader, Lecturer and Librarian of University colleges or institutions maintained by the University.

(2) The Selection Committee for appointment to the posts specified in sub-section (1) shall consist of the Vice-Chancellor, a nominee of the Chancellor, a nominee of the Government and such other persons as may be prescribed by the statutes:

Provided that the selection for such appointment by the Selection Committee shall be made in accordance with guidelines that may be issued by the University Grants Commission or other agencies concerned in relation to such appointment.

54. (1) Each Department of the University shall have a Head who shall be a Professor and whose duties and functions and terms and conditions of appointment shall be such as may be prescribed by the ordinances:

Provided that if there is more than one Professor in any Department, the Head of the Department shall be appointed in the manner prescribed by the ordinances:

Provided further that in a Department where there is no Professor, an Assistant Professor or a Reader may be appointed as Head of the Department in the manner prescribed by the ordinances.

(2) It shall be open to a Professor or an Assistant Professor or a Reader to decline the offer of appointment as Head of the Department.
A person appointed as Head of the Department shall hold office as such for a period of three years and shall be eligible for reappointment.

A Head of the Department may resign his office at any time during his tenure of office.

A Head of the Department shall perform such functions as may be prescribed by the ordinances.

(1) Every Dean of faculty shall be appointed by the Vice-Chancellor from among the Professors in the Faculty for a period of three years and he shall be eligible for re-appointment:

Provided that a Dean on attaining the age of fifty-eight years shall cease to hold office as such:

Provided further that if at any time there is no Professor in a Faculty, the Vice-Chancellor shall exercise the powers of the Dean of the faculty.

When the office of the Dean is vacant or when the Dean is by reason of his illness, absence or any other cause unable to perform the duties of his office, the duties of his office shall be performed by such person as the Vice-Chancellor may appoint for the purpose.

The Dean shall be the Head of the Faculty and shall be responsible for the conduct and maintenance of the standards of teaching and research in the Faculty. The Dean shall have such other functions as may be prescribed by the ordinances.

The Dean shall have the right to be present and to speak at any meeting of the Boards of Studies or Committees or the Faculty, as the case may be, but shall not have the right to vote thereat unless he is a member thereof.
56. All casual vacancies among the members (other than ex-officio members) of any authority or other body of the University shall be filled as soon as may be by the person or body who or which nominated or elected the member whose place has become vacant and the person nominated or elected to a casual vacancy shall be a member of such authority or body for the residue of the term for which the person whose place he fills would have been a member:

Provided that vacancies arising by efflux of time among elected members of any authority or other body of the University may be filled at elections which may be fixed by the Vice-Chancellor to take place on such day, not earlier than two months from the date on which the vacancies arise, as he thinks fit:

Provided further that no casual vacancy shall be filled if such vacancy occurs within six months before the date of the expiry of the term of the member of any authority or other body of the University.

57. No act or proceeding of any authority or other body of the University shall be invalidated merely by reason of the existence of any vacancy or of any defect or irregularity in the election or appointment of a member of such authority or other body of the University or of any defect or irregularity in such act or proceedings not affecting the merits of the case or on the ground only that the authority or other body of the University did not meet at such intervals as required under this Act.
58. The Syndicate may—

(1) (a) on the recommendation of not less than two thirds of the members of the Syndicate, remove, by an order in writing, made in this behalf, the name of any person from the register of law graduates; or

(b) remove, by an order in writing, made in this behalf, any person from membership of any authority of the University by a resolution passed by a majority of the total membership of the Syndicate and by a majority of not less than two-thirds of the members of the Syndicate present and voting at the meeting, if such person has been convicted by a criminal court for an offense which in the opinion of the Syndicate involves moral turpitude or if he has been guilty of gross misconduct and for the same reason, the Syndicate may withdraw any degree or diploma or other academic distinction conferred on, or granted to, that person by the University.

(2) the Syndicate may also by an order in writing made in this behalf, remove any person from the membership of any authority of the University if he becomes of unsound mind or deaf-mute or has applied to be adjudicated, or has been adjudicated, as an insolvent.

(3) No action under this section shall be taken against any person unless he has been given a reasonable opportunity to show cause against the action proposed to be taken.

(4) A copy of every order passed under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), as the case may be, shall as soon as may be, after it is so passed, be communicated, to the person concerned in the manner prescribed by regulations.
59. If any question arises, whether any person has been duly elected or nominated as, or is entitled to be, a member of any authority of the University or other body of the University, the question shall be referred to the Chancellor whose decision thereon shall be final.

60. All the authorities of the University shall have power to constitute or reconstitute Committees and to delegate to them such of their powers as they deem fit. Such Committees shall, save as otherwise provided consist of members of the authority concerned and such other persons, if any, as the authority in each case may deem fit.

61. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, or in any other law for the time being in force, the Government may, by order in writing, call for any information from the University on any matter relating to the affairs of the University and the University shall, if such information is available with it, furnish to the Government with such information within a reasonable period:

Provided that in the case of information which the University considers confidential the University may place the same before Chancellor for his decision.

62. (1) On and from the date of commencement of this Act, every person ordinarily resident within the University area, who—
(i) has been for at least three years a law graduate of any University in the territory of India; or

(ii) is a registered law graduate of any University in the territory of India shall be entitled to have his name entered in the register of law graduates maintained under this Act, for a period of five years, on payment of such fee and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed by the statutes.

(2) All applications for registration under sub-section (1) shall be sent to the Registrar together with the prescribed fee and such proof of qualifications as may be prescribed by the statutes.

(3) The Registrar shall, on receipt of an application made under sub-section (2) and after making such enquiry as he deems fit, enter in the register of law graduates the name of the applicant.

(4) Every person whose name has been entered in the register of law graduates under sub-section (3), shall be entitled to have such entry renewed every five years on application made in that behalf to the Registrar within such time, in such manner and on payment of such fee as may be prescribed by the statutes.

63. Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) of section 12, within three months from the date of publication of this Act in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette, the first Vice-Chancellor shall be appointed by the Government on a salary to be fixed by them for a period not exceeding three years and on such other conditions as they may deem fit:

Provided that a person appointed as first Vice-Chancellor shall retire from office, if during the term of his office, he completes the age of sixty-five years.
64. Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) of section 15, within three months from the date of publication of this Act in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette, the first Registrar shall be appointed by the Government on a salary to be fixed by them for a period not exceeding three years and on such other conditions as they may deem fit:

Provided that the person appointed as first Registrar shall retire from office, if, during the term of his office, he completes the age of fifty eight years.

65. (1) It shall be the duty of the first Vice-Chancellor to make arrangements for constituting the Syndicate, the Academic Senate and such other authorities of the University within six months from the date of his appointment or such longer period not exceeding one year as the Government may, by notification, direct.

(2) The first Vice-Chancellor shall, in consultation with the Government, make such rules as may be necessary for the functioning of the University.

(3) The authorities constituted under sub-section (1) shall commence to exercise their functions on such date as the Government may by notification specify in this behalf.

(4) It shall be the duty of the first Vice-Chancellor to draft such statutes, ordinances and regulations as may be necessary and submit them to the respective authorities competent to deal with them for their disposal. Such statutes, ordinances and regulations when framed shall be published in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette.
(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act and statutes and until such time an authority is duly constituted, the first Vice-Chancellor may appoint any officer or constitute any committee temporarily to exercise and perform any of the powers and duties of such authority under this Act and the statutes.

66. (1) The Librarian shall be a whole time officer of the University appointed by the Syndicate on the recommendation of the selection committee constituted for the purpose for such period and on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by the statutes.

(2) The Librarian shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Syndicate.

67. (1) The Syndicate may invite a person of high academic distinction and professional attainments to accept a post of Professor in the University on such terms and conditions as it deems fit, and on his acceptance, appoint him to the post.

(2) The Syndicate may appoint teacher or any other member of the academic staff working in any other University or organisation for undertaking a joint project in accordance with the manner prescribed in the ordinances.

68. (1) Subject to the provisions of sub-sections (2) to (7), the Madras University Act, 1923, the Madurai Kamaraj University Act, 1965, the Bharathiar University Act, 1981, the Bharathidasan University Act, 1981 and the Manonmaniam Sundaranar University Act 1990 (Tamil Nadu Act 31 of 1990) (hereinafter in this section referred to as the “said University Acts”) shall with effect on and from the date of commencement of this Act, cease to apply in respect of colleges and institutions to which this Act applies.

(2) Such cessor shall not affect,—

(a) the previous operation of the said University Acts in respect of the colleges and institutions referred to in sub-section (1); or

(b) any penalty, forfeiture of punishment incurred in respect of any offense committed against the said University Acts; or

(c) any investigation, legal proceedings or remedy in respect of such penalty, forfeiture or punishment and any such investigation, legal proceedings or remedy may be instituted, continued, or enforced and any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment may be imposed as if this Act had not been passed.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), all statutes, ordinances and regulations made under the said University Acts and in force on the date of commencement of this Act, shall, in so far as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, continue to be in force in the University area until they are replaced by the statutes, ordinances and regulations to be made under this Act.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the statutes, ordinances and regulations continued in force under sub-section (3) or made under this Act, every person who immediately before the date of commencement of this Act was a student of a college or institution within the University area affiliated to or approved by or maintained by the University of Madras, Madurai Kamaraj University, Bharathiar University, Bharathidasan University and Manonmaniam Sundaranar University and of the Departments of the said Universities or was eligible to appear for any of the examination in law of the said Universities, shall be permitted to complete his course of study in the respective Universities and the Tamil Nadu Dr. Ambedkar Law University shall make arrangements for the instruction, teaching and training for such students, for such period and in such manner as may be determined by the Tamil Nadu Dr. Ambedkar Law University in accordance with the course of study in the respective Universities and such students shall, during such period be admitted to the examinations held or conducted by the respective Universities and the corresponding degree, diploma or other academic distinctions of the said Universities shall be conferred upon the qualified students on the results of such examinations by the said Universities.

(5) All colleges specified in the Schedule within the University area and which are affiliated to, or recognised by the University of Madras, Madurai Kamaraj University, Bharathiar University, Bharathidasan University and Manonmaniam Sundaranar University and providing courses of study for admission to the examination for degree of the said Universities shall be deemed to be colleges affiliated to the University under this Act and the provisions of this Act shall, as far as may be, apply accordingly.

(6) (a) On and from the date of the commencement of this Act, no University other than the Tamil Nadu Dr. Ambedkar Law University shall open and affiliate any college providing courses of study in law either at the Under-Graduate level or Post-Graduate level or for issuing any other diploma or certificate in law.
(b) The Government may on and from the date to be notified in this behalf, and in consultation with Vice-Chancellor of the University of Madras, the Madurai Kamaraj University, the Bharathiar University or the Bharathidasan University and Manonmaniam Sundaranar University as the case may be, by order, transfer any department functioning in any such University offering courses of study in law at Post-Graduate level to the Tamil Nadu Dr. Ambedkar Law University.

(7) All law college hostels within the University area which continue to be recognised by the said Universities immediately before the date of commencement of this Act shall be deemed to be hostels recognised by the Tamil Nadu Dr. Ambedkar Law University under this Act and the provisions of this Act shall, as far as may be, apply accordingly.

(8) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (2), but without prejudice to the provisions of sub-sections (3) to (7), anything done or any action taken before the date of commencement of this Act under any provisions of the said University Acts in respect of any area to which the provisions of this Act extend shall be deemed to have been done or taken under corresponding provision of this Act and shall continue to have effect accordingly unless and until superseded by anything done or any action taken under the corresponding provision of this Act.

69. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Madras University Act, 1923, the Madurai Kamaraj University Act, 1965, the Bharathiar University Act, 1981, the Bharathidasan

Deemed affiliation of existing law colleges and transfer of properties and employees
University Act, 1981, the Manonmaniam Sundaranar University Act 1990 (Tamil Nadu Act 31 of 1990) or the statutes, ordinances, regulations and orders made thereunder on and from the date of commencement of this Act, the law colleges specified in the Schedule shall be disaffiliated from the University, to which they were affiliated on the date immediately proceeding the date of commencement of this Act and shall be deemed to be affiliated to the Tamil Nadu Dr. Ambedkar Law University on the date of commencement of this Act and the provisions of this Act shall apply accordingly:

Provided that the deemed affiliated status of the Central Law College, Salem, shall be subject to the same terms and conditions under which it was affiliated to the University of Madras.

(2) On and from the date to be notified by the Government under clause (b) of sub-section (6) of section 68, all properties, whether movable or immovable, including lands, buildings, equipments, books and library and all rights of whatsoever kind owned by or vested in, or held in trust by the said Universities in relation to the said department of the said Universities as well as liabilities, legally subsisting against that University in relation to the said department immediately before the said notified date, shall stand transferred to and vest in the Tamil Nadu Dr. Ambedkar Law University.

(3) The Government may, at any time after the date of commencement of this Act, transfer to the Tamil Nadu Dr. Ambedkar Law University any of their lands for its use on such terms and conditions as they deem proper.

(4) On and from the date to be notified by the Government under clause (b) of sub-section (6) of section 68, the Government may, after consulting the Vice-Chancellors of the University of Madras, Madurai Kamaraj University, Bharathiar University and Bharathidasan University and the Tamil Nadu Dr. Ambedkar Law University direct by general or special order that such of the employees of the Department of the University of Madras, Madurai Kamaraj University, Bharathiar University and Bharathidasan University referred to in clause (b) of sub-section (6) of section 68 as are specified in such order, shall stand allotted to, serve in connection with the affairs of the Tamil Nadu Dr. Ambedkar Law University with effect on and from such date as may be specified in such order:

Provided that no such order shall be issued in respect of any such employee without his consent for such allotment.

(5) With effect on and from the date specified in the order under sub section (4), the persons specified in such order shall become employees of the Tamil Nadu Dr. Ambedkar Law University and shall cease to be employee of the University of Madras, Madurai Kamaraj University, Bharathiar University and Bharathidasan University, as the case may be.

(6) Every person referred to in sub-section (4) shall hold office in the Tamil Nadu Dr. Ambedkar Law University by the same tenure, at the same remuneration and upon the same terms and conditions and with the same rights and privileges as to pension or gratuity, if any and other matters as he would have held the same on the date notified by the Government under clause (b) of sub-section (6) of section 68 or the date specified in the order under sub-section (4), as the case may be, as if this Act had not been passed.
(7) The liability to pay pension and gratuity to the persons referred to in sub-section (4) shall be the liability of the Tamil Nadu Dr. Ambedkar Law University.

70. (1) The sums at the credit of the Provident Fund accounts of the persons referred to in sub-section (4) of section 69 as on the date specified in the order under the said sub-section (4) shall be transferred to the University and the liability in respect of the said provident fund account shall be the liability of the University.

(2) There shall be paid to the Tamil Nadu Dr. Ambedkar Law University out of the accumulation in the superannuation fund and other like funds, if any, of the University of Madras, the Madurai Kamaraj University, the Bharathiar University and the Bharathidasan University, and the Manonmaniam Sundaranar University such amount as have been credited to the superannuation fund or other like funds, if any, on behalf of the persons referred to in sub-section (4) of section 69. The amount so paid shall form part of the superannuation fund or other like funds, if any, that may be established by the Tamil Nadu Dr. Ambedkar Law University for the benefit of its employees.

71. (1) If any difficulty arises as to the first constitution or reconstitution of any authority of the University after the date of commencement of this Act or otherwise in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the Government may, by notification, make such provisions not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act as may appear to them to be necessary or expedient for removing the difficulty:

Provided that no such notification shall be issued after the expiry of five years from the date of establishment of the University under section 3.

(2) Every notification issued under sub-section (1) or under any other provisions of this Act shall, as soon as possible after it is issued, be placed on the table of the Legislative Assembly and if, before the expiry of the session in which it is so placed or the next session, the Assembly makes any modification in any such notification or the Assembly decides that the notification shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be, so however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of any thing previously done under that notification.

If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the time appointed for a meeting, the meeting shall not be held and the Registrar shall make a record of the fact.

Provided that such quorum shall not be required at a convocation of the University or meeting of the Academic Senate held for the purpose of conferring degrees, titles, diplomas or other academic distinctions.

(b) If at any time during the progress of a meeting any member shall call attention to the number of members present, the Chairman shall, within a reasonable time, count the number of the members present, and if a quorum be not present, he/she shall declare the meeting dissolved and shall leave the Chair. All such dissolutions shall be recorded by the Registrar and the record shall be signed by the Chairman.
15. (a) Any member who wishes to move a resolution on the subject item in the agenda at an ordinary meeting shall forward a copy of the resolution to the Registrar so as to reach him/her not less than 15 clear days before the date of meeting.

(b) The Registrar shall place all such resolutions before the Vice-Chancellor who shall direct him/her to include such resolutions in the Agenda, provided that no resolutions shall be admissible which does not comply with the following conditions;

(i) It shall be clearly and precisely expressed and shall raise substantially one definite issue related to the subject item on the agenda;

(ii) It shall not raise issues which do not fall under the items of the agenda for the meeting and which do not fall within the powers of the Academic Senate;

(iii) It shall not contain arguments, inferences; ironical expressions or defamatory statements, nor shall it refer to the character or conduct of persons in their official or public capacity; and

(iv) It shall not refer to any matter which is under adjudication by a court of law.

16. No resolution shall be moved at any meeting of the Academic Senate on a subject which is not primarily the concern of the Academic Senate at that meeting. The Chairman shall be the sole judge as to whether a subject is primarily the concern of the Academic Senate or not, and his/her decision thereon shall be final.
17. The Vice-Chancellor shall cause each resolution of which notice has been given in accordance with Statute 15 of this chapter to be placed on the agenda paper of the meeting at which it is to be moved.

18. A motion substantially identical with one already moved and disposed off at a meeting shall not be placed on the agenda paper at a subsequent meeting.

Provided, however, it shall be open to the Syndicate or the Vice-Chancellor to bring forward any subject for reconsideration at a meeting if in its or his/her opinion such reconsideration has been rendered necessary by fresh facts.

19. Not less than 21 days before the date of an ordinary meeting and not less than 10 days before the date of a special meeting, the Registrar shall issue to every member an agenda paper specifying the day and the hour of the meeting and the business to be brought before the meeting, but the non-receipt of the agenda paper by any member shall not invalidate the proceedings of the meeting, provided that the Syndicate or the Vice-Chancellor may bring any business which is in its or his/her opinion urgent before any ordinary or special meeting with shorter notice or without placing the same on the agenda paper.

20. Any member who wishes to move an amendment to a resolution on the agenda paper of any ordinary or special meeting of the Academic Senate shall forward a copy of the same to the Registrar so as to reach him/her not less than 9 clear days before the day of the meeting at which the resolution is to be moved.
21. The Registrar shall, on the receipt of amendments given in accordance with Statute 20 of this Chapter, prepare an amended agenda paper showing all the resolutions as in the original agenda paper and all the admissible amendments together with the resolutions, if any, brought forward by the Syndicate or the Vice-Chancellor under the provisions of Statute 19 supra and after approval of the Vice-Chancellor, shall post a copy of it to each member of the Academic Senate not less than 5 clear days before the date of any meeting.

22. The Chairman shall if so desired, in a meeting at which a quorum is present, adjourn the meeting from time to time but subject to the provisions of other laws. No business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

23. When a meeting is adjourned for 15 days or more, not less than 10 days notice of the adjourned meeting and of the business to be transacted at it shall be given. Save as aforesaid it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjourned meeting of the business to be transacted.

24. At every meeting of the Academic Senate, the following shall ordinarily be the order of business, after election, if it be necessary, of the Chairman for the meeting.

(i) Business brought forward by the Chancellor
(ii) Business brought forward by the Vice-Chancellor
(iii) Business brought forward by the Syndicate
(iv) Business brought forward by the Members of the Academic Senate
Provided however that the Chairman at his/her discretion effect changes in the order of business as he/she deems fit.

25. At any meeting of the Academic Senate the following resolution may be moved without previous notice, but shall not be made so as to interrupt a speech:

(i) A resolution relating to business not included in the agenda but brought forward by the Syndicate or the Vice-Chancellor as urgent at a meeting other than a special meeting.

(ii) Complimentary motion: At any meeting of the Academic Senate, motion of a complimentary character or condolence nature may without previous notice, be moved from the Chair or by any member with the previous permission of the Chair.

26. Any member may, with the previous permission of the Chair, move any amendment to any resolution brought forward by the Syndicate or the Vice-Chancellor as urgent business.

27. At any meeting of the Academic Senate the following amendments may be moved without previous notice:

(i) Amendments of purely verbal or formal kind which in the opinion of the Chairman do not affect the sense or import of the motion to which they refer;

(ii) Amendments to any resolution or amendment on the agenda paper, which in the opinion of the Chairman have been rendered necessary by and are consequential upon any motion passed by the Academic Senate at the same meeting.
28. Save as otherwise permitted in Statutes 15, 20, 25 and 26 of this chapter no resolution or amendment which is not placed on the agenda shall be moved at the meeting.

29. When any motion has been brought forward and has been negatived, no other motion of the same kind shall be again brought forward until after the lapse of what the Chairman shall deem a reasonable time nor shall any discussion be allowed on such second or subsequent motion brought forward during a discussion on the same question.

30. (a) Amendment to a motion shall be –

(i) for deleting a word or words;

(ii) for deleting a word or words, in order to insert some other word or words; and

(iii) for adding or inserting a word or words

(b) When the amendment is of the first kind the form in which it is proposed shall be –

“That the words (mentioning them) be left out of the resolution”.

When the amendment is of the second kind, the form shall be – “That the words (mentioning them) be left out of the resolution and that the words (mentioning them) be added or inserted” and there shall then follow words specifying the place in which the words mentioned are to be added or inserted.

When the amendment is of the third kind, the form shall be –
"That the words (mentioning them) be added or inserted" and there shall then follow words specifying the place in which the words mentioned are to be added or inserted.

31. The order in which amendments to a resolution are to be brought forward shall be determined by the Chairman.

32. (a) Negative Amendments: No amendment shall be proposed which would reduce the original resolution to its negative or opposite form.

(b) Relevancy of Amendment: Every amendment must be relevant to the resolution to which it refers and must be framed so as to form therewith an intelligible and consistent sentence.

(c) Amendment to Motion for Adjournment: No amendment shall be moved to a motion for adjournment of meeting or debate except one substituting a different day or hour.

33. When permitted by the Chair, may speak on his/her motion before he/she actually proposes it; but a speech is only allowed on the distinct understanding that he/she speaks on the question and that he/she concludes by proposing his/her motion formally.

34. Every motion at a meeting must be seconded; otherwise it shall drop. Any member may second a motion by saying, “I second the motion”. A member who seconds a substantive motion but not an amendment to a motion, may second the motion saying “I second the motion and reserve my speech”. When a motion has been moved and seconded, it shall be stated from the Chair, unless it be ruled out of order by the Chairman.
35. Not more than one resolution and one amendment thereto shall be placed before a meeting at the same time.

36. Any resolution or amendment standing in the name of a member who is absent from the meeting or who declines to move it, may be moved by any other member permitted by the Chair.

37. (a) No motion or amendment shall be withdrawn from the decision of the meeting without its unanimous consent but this consent shall be presumed if the mover states his/her wish to withdraw the motion and the Chairman after an interval during which no dissent is expressed, announces that it is withdrawn.

(b) A motion cannot be withdrawn in the absence of the member who moved it. Where an amendment has been proposed to a resolution the original motion cannot be withdrawn, until the amendment has been first disposed of.

38. No motion shall be moved or seconded by any member who during the discussion of any particular item of business, has already moved or seconded any one of such motions.

39. No speech shall ordinarily exceed 5 minutes in duration provided that the Chairman may at his/her discretion allow the mover of a resolution or of an amendment when moving the same to speak for more than 5 minutes and has power to make him/her resume the seat.
40. The member who first rises to speak at the conclusion of a speech shall normally be heard. In cases of more than one member rising to speak the Chairman shall decide the priority of speakers.

41. No member can speak to a question more than once except where the mover has the right of reply as provided for in Statute 43. A member who has spoken on a motion and resumed his/her seat cannot subsequently rise to or second an amendment to the same motion.

A member who has moved or seconded an amendment cannot speak again on the original motion after the amendment has been disposed of.

A member who has moved or seconded an original motion or spoken on it or moved or seconded an amendment thereto cannot subsequently move or second another amendment to the same motion, or mover or second a motion during the debates on the same motion. He/She may however, speak on those new motions, when proposed by another member.

42. The Chairman has the right to move or second or speak on a resolution or amendment but he/she shall vacate the Chair while so engaged, and the Chair shall, during such time, be taken by a member nominated by the Chairman. Without leaving the chair, the Chairman, may, however at the request of any member, explain to the meeting the scope of any resolution or amendment.

43. When the Chairman has ascertained that no other member entitled to address the meeting desires to speak, the mover of a substantive motion may reply upon the whole debate. No member shall speak on a question after the mover has entered on his/her reply.
44. Any member may rise to explain any misconception of expression used by him/her, but he/she shall confine himself/herself strictly to such explanation. Such personal explanation may be offered whilst another member is speaking, only if the member who is speaking gives way by resuming his/her seat.

45. (a) The Chairman shall call any member to order, and shall have power to take such action as may be necessary to enforce his/her decision.

(b) The Chairman may direct any member, whose conduct is, in his/her opinion gross, to withdraw immediately from the Academic Senate. Any member so ordered to withdraw shall do so forthwith and absent himself/herself during the remainder of the day’s meeting.

(c) Suspension of Meeting: The Chairman may in the case of grave disorder arising in the Academic Senate suspend any sitting for a time to be specified by him/her.

46. When the meeting on a motion is concluded or if there be no meeting, the Chairman shall put the motion to vote by saying, “The Motion is” followed by the words of the motion, and Academic Senate shall then divide unless the Chairman ascertains that the motion is carried affirmatively, by a unanimous vote.

If there be amendment, he/she shall say, “It has been moved,” (followed by the words of the resolution) then he/she shall say, “Since it has been moved by way of amendment” (followed by the words of the amendment) and then, if the amendment be one of the kind specified in sub-clause (a) (i) of Statute 30 of this chapter, he/she shall put the question by saying “shall the words or word proposed to be left out be left out?”
If the amendment be of the kind specified in sub-clause (a) (ii) of the same Statute he/she shall put the question by saying “shall following word or words..... be left out in order to add or insert the following word or words...?”

If the amendment of the kind specified in sub-clause (iii) of the same Statute, he/she shall put the question by saying, “shall these words be there added or inserted?”

If an amendment be negatived, the original resolution shall be again stated from the Chair and any other amendments, if any, thereto may then be moved.

If an amendment be carried, the resolution as amended shall be stated from the Chair and may then be debated as a substantive resolution to which further amendments, if any, to the original resolution may be moved, and such further amendments shall be disposed of in the same manner as the previous amendment.

47. Voting: All resolutions considered at a meeting of the Academic Senate shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the members present unless a particular majority is required by the laws of the University. If the votes including that of the Chairman be equally divided, the Chairman shall have a casting vote.

48. The Minutes of all proceedings of each meeting of the Academic Senate shall be signed by the Chairman of the meeting. The Registrar, within three weeks of a meeting, shall send a copy of the minutes of that meeting so signed by the Chairman to each member of the Academic Senate.
49. (a) If no exception is taken by any member who was present at the meeting to the correctness of the minutes within 10 days of the sending of the minutes, they shall be deemed to be correct.

(b) If such exception be taken within the time aforesaid by means of a letter addressed to the Registrar, definitely specifying the points which require correction in the minutes, and if the Syndicate is satisfied with the points of exception, the minutes shall be brought forward by the Syndicate at the next meeting of the Academic Senate for confirmation or correction by such of the members as were present when the business was transacted to which that minutes refer.
CHAPTER V

RULES AND PROCEDURES FOR THE CONDUCT OF ELECTION TO THE AUTHORITIES OF THE TAMIL NADU DR. AMBEDKAR LAW UNIVERSITY

RULES FOR THE CONDUCT OF ELECTIONS UNDER THE ACT

1. Except as otherwise provided in the Laws of the University, the Vice-Chancellor shall direct the holding of all elections, and shall have power –

(a) to fix the mode and date of elections;

(b) to determine the form of notice, nomination, letter of intimation, declaration paper, ballot paper, etc. in any election.

(c) to prescribe the method of deciding the validity or invalidity of each ballot paper or of each vote recorded;

(d) to declare the results of each election; and

(e) to delegate the power to the Returning Officer to decide the validity of each ballot paper or each vote recorded and to declare the results of each election. The decision of the Vice-Chancellor or the Officers named in the Statute or the Returning Officer to whom the power has been delegated shall be, subject to the provisions in Section 56 Chapter IX of the Tamil Nadu Dr. Ambedkar Law University Act, be final. Provided that it shall be competent for the Vice-Chancellor, when any emergency arises:

(i) to assume the powers of the Returning Officer and function as such either by himself/herself or by deputing any other person, when, during the course of conduct of any election, the Returning Officer cannot carry out his/her duties; and

(ii) to postpone the date or dates fixed in a programme for transaction of the business conducted with the elections at intermediate stage. The Vice-Chancellor shall record his/her reasons for such action taken.

2. No election to an authority of the University shall be invalid by reason of any vacancy among the persons entitled to vote at such election or by the loss during transmission of any notice or ballot paper. Election not invalid by reason of vacancies in the electorate

3. The results of all elections shall be published in Tamil Nadu Government Gazette. Elections shall take effect in the case of anticipatory elections, from the date of the occurrence of the vacancy and in other cases, from the date of declaration of the result of the election. Dates from which elections take effect

4. Objections to elections shall be made in writing and shall be forwarded to the Vice-Chancellor so as to reach him/her within seven clear days after the declaration of the results of the elections. Objections to elections

The Vice-Chancellor on receipt of the objections shall consider the merit of the objections after giving opportunities to the parties concerned and issue his/her verdict within thirty days from the date of receipt of the objections.
5. The ballot papers together with other election documents of each election shall be preserved in the office of the Registrar for a period of one month after the date of election or if any question arises as to the election, until it is disposed of finally.

6. The Vice-Chancellor may direct the Registrar or any other officer of the University to do all things necessary for the conduct of all elections to the various University bodies.

The Vice-Chancellor may also delegate in writing the powers connected with conduct of elections of the University to the Registrar or any other authorised person.

7. If any vacancy occurs or is about to occur by efflux of time, among the members of any University authority which has to be filled up by an election conducted by the University, a notification of the fact shall be published in the Gazette.

8. The Registrar/Officer specified for the purpose shall notify the nature of polling regarding,

(i) Election to the Syndicate under Section 22(2) Class II (b) of the Act.

(ii) Elections to the Syndicate under Section 22(2) Class II (j) of the Act.

Such elections shall be conducted as follows:
(a) The direct polling shall take place by secret ballot on the day of the meeting of the electing authority cconcerned, between the hours of meeting as fixed by the Vice-Chancellor on that day.

(b) A notice regarding the date on which the poll will be held and a final list of candidates validly nominated shall be sent to every member of the electing authority cconcerned not less than ten clear days before the date fixed for the poll.

(c) All members present at the meeting shall be entitled to vote. No vote shall be given by proxy or by post.
Members present shall sign in the nominal/electoral roll kept for the purpose as a record of voting at the election.

(d) The Returning Officer shall ascertain that the person desiring to vote is a member who has not already voted and shall enter his/her name upon the counterfoil of ballot paper/or in a register maintained for the purpose of the election and shall then hand over to the member the ballot paper corresponding to the counterfoil or number in the register after initialing the ballot paper on the back thereof. Every ballot paper shall contain the name of all candidates for election arranged in alphabetical order. There shall not be serial number or any other identifying mark on the ballot paper.

(e) When a Member has received a ballot paper he/she shall proceed to the place arranged for marking the vote and shall mark thereon by putting a cross mark thus ‘X’ against the name or names of persons the Member intends to votes for. The number of nominees for whom each elector may vote may be less than or equal to, but shall not be more than the number of vacancies to be filled in; the member shall then fold the ballot paper and drop it in a ballot box placed in front of the Returning Officer.

(f) If a member inadvertently spoils a ballot paper he may return it to the Returning Officer who shall, if satisfied of such inadvertence, give him another paper and retain the spoiled paper; and this spoiled paper shall be immediate cancelled and the fact of such cancellation shall be noted on the counterfoil/Registrar.

(g) In the case of all elections at the close of the poll or when all the members present have voted, the Returning Officer shall, with the help of such members of the University staff as he/she may consider necessary, proceed with the counting of the votes obtained by each candidate and prepare the result sheet. In case of doubt about validity of any ballot paper, the matter shall be decided by the Returning Officer whose decision shall be final.

9. Any candidate or his/her agent can request a recount of the votes by presenting the petition in writing immediately after the counting is completed. The Returning Officer, at his discretion, may order a recount of the votes and the decision of the Returning Officer regarding recounting shall be final. While requesting recount of votes, the candidates or the agents, apart from furnishing reasons for the request, should pay a sum of Rs.500 towards recounting fee for which an official receipt will be issued by the Returning Officer. A candidate or his/her agent may request recounting of votes only once in a particular election.
10. A ballot paper shall be invalid if

(a) it does not bear the Registrar’s/Returning Officer’s initials; or

(b) a voter signs his/her name or writes any word or makes any mark on it, by which it becomes recognizable; or

(c) no vote is recorded thereon; or

(d) the number of votes recorded thereon, exceeds the number of vacancies to be filled; or

(e) it is void for uncertainty.

Provided that where more than one vote can be given on the same ballot paper if one of the marks is so placed as to render it doubtful to which candidate it is intended to apply, the vote concerned but not whole ballot paper shall be invalid on that count.

11. Wherever applicable the Tellers/Officials entrusted with the counting of ballots shall, after preparing the result sheet, deliver it to the Returning Officer, who shall declare the result of the elections as stated in Statute 12.

12. The candidate or candidates equal in number to the number of vacancies, receiving the largest number of votes shall be declared as duly elected. When two or more candidates receive an equal number of votes and if they cannot all be declared elected, the final election shall be made by drawing lots in such manner as the Returning Officer may determine.

13. After election process is over, all ballot papers shall be put in a cover, sealed and deposited in the custody of the Registrar/Officer nominated for the purpose for a period of three months, after which these can be destroyed.
14. Each elector shall be at liberty to propose a qualified person to fill the vacancy. Every proposal shall be in the prescribed form and shall be made by an elector in writing and shall be seconded in writing by another elector. Every such proposal shall be accompanied by a statement signed by the proposer agreeing to serve on the authority, if elected and declaring that he/she is not already a member of the authority, to which he/she seeks election, or if he/she is already a member, that his/her term of office as such would expire before the membership for which he/she is seeking election takes effect, and nomination paper must reach the Registrar/Returning Officer within the date and hour fixed which shall be, not later than ten clear days after the publication of the notification in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette.

(a) An elector shall be eligible to subscribe either as proposer or as seconder in nomination papers, only as many times as there are vacancies but not more.

(b) Nomination papers shall be enclosed in an envelope superscribed “Nomination to the ......................... ......................by.........................” and sent by Registered post (acknowledgement due) so as to reach the Registrar within the date and hour fixed or delivered to the Registrar, during office hours either in person or by messenger within the date and hour fixed.

(c) Nomination papers that are NOT enclosed in an envelope superscribed as specified and not sent by registered post or are not delivered in person or by messenger as required above shall be declared invalid.
15 (a) All nomination papers shall be scrutinized by the Returning Officer or other Officer authorized by him/her in his/her behalf on the date and hour and at the place appointed and notified in the notice of vacancy. Candidates and representatives of each candidate appointed in writing by him/her may be present at the time of scrutiny.

(b) If, after the scrutiny of nomination papers the number of candidates validly nominated is equal to or less than the number of vacancies to be filled, the candidates so validly nominated shall be declared duly elected.

(c) If the number of such candidates declared elected is less than the number of vacancies the constituency shall be called upon to elect a person or persons as the case may be to fill the remaining vacancies.

(d) If, after scrutiny, the number of candidates validly nominated is greater than the number of vacancies, the final list of candidates for the election be published by affixing the same on the notice board in the Office of the Returning Officer on the same day and a copy of the same shall be forwarded to each of the candidates nominated for election.

16. Any candidate may withdraw his candidature by notice in writing sent by Registered Post so as to reach the Returning Officer or delivered to the Returning Officer or other person authorized by him/her not later than three O’clock in the afternoon of the day fixed for withdrawal, which shall be five clear days after the last date for receipt of nomination. A candidate who has withdrawn his/her candidature shall not be allowed to cancel the withdrawal or to be renominated as a candidate for the same election.
17. The Returning Officer or other person authorized by him/her shall publish on the same day after the time for withdrawal of nominations has expired a final list of candidates validly nominated.

18. Members who have filed nominations for a particular election shall not be engaged for any work regarding the conduct of that election.

19. (a) If the number of candidates who are validly nominated and who have not withdrawn their candidature in the manner and within the time specified does not exceed or is less than the number of vacancies to be filled, all such candidates shall be declared to be duly elected and if the number of such candidates declared elected is less than the number of vacancies, the constituency shall be called upon to elect a person or persons, as the case may be, to fill the remaining vacancies.

(b) If the number of candidates who are validly nominated and who have not withdrawn the candidature in the manner prescribed and within the time specified is greater than the number of vacancies to be filled, the election shall be proceeded in the manner prescribed.

20. The Registrar/Returning Officer shall forward to each elector (through the post wherever necessary) a numbered declaration paper, a ballot paper on which the names of the candidates with their addresses arranged in alphabetical order and which shall bear on it the Registrar’s/Returning Officer’s initials and the last date of posting, a ballot paper cover, and an envelope addressed to the Registrar/Returning Officer together with a letter of intimation stating the number of vacancies, the date and hours fixed for the poll, and the day and hours fixed for scrutiny and counting of votes. The papers shall be forwarded to the address entered against the name of the elector in the electoral roll, or if the elector has since the publication or preparation of the roll changed his/her address and intimated the fact in writing to the Registrar at least 14 days before the first date of despatch of ballot papers, to the address so given.

21. The elector shall, after filling up the declaration and the ballot paper in accordance with the directions given in the letter of intimation, enclose the ballot paper in the ballot paper cover and the declaration paper in the envelope addressed to the Registrar and send the envelope by registered post so as to reach the Registrar not later than the day and latest hour fixed for the poll.

Provided that, at his/her option, the elector may, either in person or by an agent, deposit the envelope addressed to the Registrar in the ballot box on the day and during the hours fixed for the poll.

22. If an elector is incapacitated from blindness or other physical cause from voting in the manner prescribed, it shall be competent for him/her to record his/her vote by the hand of any of the persons enumerated below and such person shall, on the declaration paper, certify the incapacity and attest the fact of his having been requested by the elector to mark the ballot paper for him/her and of its having been so marked by him/her in the presence of the elector.
23. The following persons are empowered to attest votes of incapacitated electors:

1. Principals of affiliated or approved colleges
2. Members of the Academic Senate or Syndicate

24. On the day at the hour appointed for the scrutiny and counting of votes, envelopes received from the electors by the Registrar/Returning Officer except those which have not either been sent by registered post so as to reach the Registrar not later than the day and the latest hour fixed for the poll or deposited in the ballot box provided on the day during the hours fixed for the poll, shall be arranged and counted. Groups of election papers and covers sent in a single cover by registered post to the Registrar/Returning Officer shall be rejected. They shall then be opened and the ballot paper covers examined.

25. A ballot paper cover shall be rejected, if –

(i) it is not the cover sent by the Registrar/Returning Officer; or

(ii) the envelope contains no declaration paper outside the ballot paper cover; or

(iii) the declaration paper is not the one sent by the Registrar/Returning Officer; or

(iv) the declaration or attestation is not in accordance with the rules; or

(v) the ballot paper is placed outside the ballot paper cover; or
(vi) more than one declaration paper or cover containing ballot paper have been enclosed in one and the same envelope; or

(vii) the declaration paper is not duly signed; in each case of rejection; the word “rejected” shall be endorsed on the ballot paper cover or the declaration paper.

26. No person other than the Vice-Chancellor, the Registrar/Returning Officer and such persons as the Vice-Chancellor may appoint to assist the Registrar/Returning Officer the candidates or not more than one representative of each candidate appointed in writing by him/her shall be present at the scrutiny and counting of votes.

27. The election of one member to the Academic Senate by the teachers of each affiliated college shall be governed by the following:

(a) The election shall be held by secret ballot, on the day fixed by the University among the teachers of the College.

(b) Teachers of the college for the purpose of this rule means as defined in Section 2(n) of the Act, including Director of Physical Education in Colleges but excluding Part-Time lecturers, Physical Instructors and Assistant Librarians.

(c) Not less than seven clear days before the date of election, notice of election shall be issued by the Returning Officer furnishing information regarding:

(i) the number of vacancies to be filled;

(ii) last date and hour for filling the nominations;
(iii) date and hour for the scrutiny of nominations;
(iv) date and hour for the publication of valid list of nominations;
(v) last date and hour for withdrawal of candidature;
(vi) the place, date and time of issue of ballot paper, polling, scrutiny; and
(vii) counting of votes.

(d) A copy of notice as issued above shall be published in the college notice board.

(e) The Principal shall be the Returning Officer for the election. In the absence of the Principal, the teacher holding charge of post of the Principal shall be Returning Officer. In such cases the fact may be informed to the Registrar in advance.

(f) Provided that, if after the scrutiny of nominations and after the time for withdrawal of candidature is over, the Returning Officer finds that the number of candidates validly nominated is less than or equal to the number of vacancies to be filled, he shall declare such candidates or candidates to be duly elected and if the number of valid nominations exceed the number of vacancies to be filled, further process for the election shall be proceeded with, as per the notice issued earlier in this regard.

(c) a certificate of medical fitness from a Medical Officer not below the rank of a Civil Assistant Surgeon that he/she is physically fit for the job and that he/she suffers from no disability, contagious diseases which would affect the discharge of his/her duties in the University.

7. Where it has become necessary owing to an emergency to fill immediately a vacancy in any post, and there would be undue delay in appointment in accordance with the Statutes, the Vice-Chancellor may promote or appoint a person temporarily for a period not exceeding one year. Such appointments/promotions shall be reported to the Syndicate in the next meeting.

8. Scales of Pay As per the Schedule – I

V. Probation.

1. Every directly recruited employee of the University unless specifically exempted, shall be on probation for a period of two years within a continuous period of three years from the date of joining duty in the University.

Provided that in the case of Group ‘D’ employees, the probation shall be a period of one year from the date of joining duty.

2. (a) On completion of the period of probation, an assessment of the work of probationers shall be made and on the basis of such an assessment, the appointing authority may either declare him/her to have completed his/her probation satisfactorily or extend his/her probation by such period as is considered necessary, not exceeding one year to make a further assessment of his/her suitability provided such orders shall be issued within three months from the normal date on which he/she would have completed the probation or terminate his/her services. If on assessment at the end of the extended period of probation work is found to be not satisfactory, his/her services shall be terminated or reverted back as the case may be. An order either declaring completion of probation or terminating probation shall be issued within six months from the completion of normal period of probation. If no such orders are issued within the period stipulated, he/she shall be deemed to have completed his/her probation satisfactorily.

(b) A committee presided over the Vice-Chancellor and consisting of the Head of the Department concerned, and a Senior Faculty next in rank in the concerned Department shall evaluate the work of the probationer and make recommendations whether he/she can be declared as having completed his/her probation satisfactorily or otherwise.

VI. Furnishing of Security and Agreement

1. Any person appointed to the categories for which security is considered necessary as prescribed from time to time by the Syndicate shall furnish the security in cash or in any other manner as prescribed by the Syndicate from time to time.

2. All employees appointed on probation or on contract other than the persons appointed on foreign service terms shall execute an agreement either declaring completion of probation or terminating probation.
agreement in favour of the University embodying the clauses of these Statutes in the form prescribed on a stamp paper.

3. All employees who have satisfactorily completed their probation, shall execute an agreement in favour of the University in the prescribed form on a stamp paper.

VII. Notice for Leaving Employment:

1. An approved probationer other than the staff in Group D shall not leave or discontinue service on his/her own accord without first giving three calendar months’ notice or by paying an amount equivalent to his/her salary of three calendar months’. The appointing authority shall have the right to accept or refuse the request on valid grounds.

2. A probationer or a temporary employee of any Group and a regular employee of Group D shall not leave or discontinue service on his/her own accord without first giving one calendar months’ notice or by paying an amount equivalent to his/her salary for one month.

VIII. Retirement:

1. An employee of Group A, B and C shall retire from the University service on the last day of the month in which he/she completes his/her 58th year of age in respect of non-teaching; in respect of persons who have their date of birth as first day of the month will retire on the last of the previous month; and at the end of the academic year in which he/she completes his/her 60th year of age in respect of teaching staff. Group D employee shall retire on the last day of the month in which he/she completes 60th year of age and persons who have first day of a month as their birth date will retire on the last day of the previous month.

IX. Compulsory/Voluntary Retirement-Notice-Issuance

1. (a) Notwithstanding anything contained in these Statutes, the Syndicate on the basis of recommendations made by a committee constituted by it every year for this purpose of review, shall, if it is of the opinion that it is in the interest of the University Teaching Staff by giving him/her notice of not less than three months in writing or three months pay and allowances in lieu of such notice, after he/she has attained the age of fifty years or completed twenty years of qualifying service.

(b) Any teaching staff after completion of a qualifying service of 20 years or attaining fifty years of age may opt to retire by giving notice of not less than three months in writing to the University. Notice may be waived by competent authority under circumstances warranted to do so.

2. Notwithstanding anything contained in these Statutes, the Syndicate on the basis of recommendations made by the Committee constituted by the Syndicate every year for this purpose of review shall, if it is of the opinion that it is in the University’s interest, have the absolute right to retire any University non-teaching employee by giving him/her notice of not less than three months in writing or three months’ pay and allowances in lieu of such notice, when he/she has attained the age of 50 years or after he/she has completed 20 years of qualifying service. Any non-teaching staff who has attained the age of 50 years or after his/her completion of 20 years of qualifying service may likewise opt to retire after giving notice of not less than 3 months in writing to the University.

In computing the notice period of 3 months, the date of service of the notice shall be excluded. A fresh notice will be required if leave on loss of pay during the notice period is availed.

When an University employee under suspension or against whom disciplinary action is pending seeks to retire voluntarily under this Statue, the Syndicate may withhold the permission sought for.

3. Any employee compulsorily retired above may, if he/she chooses, file a review petition within 2 months to the Syndicate from the date of receipt of the order of the Syndicate.

A ‘Review Committee’ which shall be specifically constituted every year for this purpose by the Syndicate shall consider and make its recommendations to the Syndicate. The decision of the Syndicate thereon, shall be final.
X. Scale of Pay and Allowances

1. The scale of pay admissible to various categories of post in the University shall be fixed as given in Schedule I. The Dearness Allowance, House Rent Allowance and City Compensatory Allowance shall be as per the rules applicable to the employees of the Government of Tamil Nadu from time to time.

2. All appointments shall ordinarily be made at the minimum of the scale of pay prescribed for the post, provided, however, that the Syndicate in special cases may authorise fixation of the pay at higher stage in the pay scale for reasons to be recorded in writing. Such higher fixation shall be subject to a maximum of 5 additional increments unless it is question of protecting the previous emoluments of the selected candidate.

3. The Fundamental Rules of the Tamil Nadu Government shall apply in general regarding pay fixation, increments, joining time, foreign service, additional charge, wherever it is not inconsistent with any of the provisions under the Statutes and the Act.

4. Whenever, the University creates a temporary post for a specified period not exceeding two years at a time, the Syndicate may prescribe adhoc rules to govern the recruitment, qualification and scale of pay.
XI. Record of Service :

1. A record of service of each employee of the University shall be maintained in the form and manner prescribed by the Syndicate to include all details of the service, pay drawn, leave and punishments.

2. An open Annual Performance Appraisal File of the employees of the University shall also be maintained.

XII. Leave :

1. The following are the various kinds of leave admissible to the employees (teaching and non-teaching) of the University:

   (i) Earned Leave
   (ii) Maternity Leave
   (iii) Unearned leave on medical certificate
   (iv) Unearned leave on private affairs Study leave

(iii) In addition, they are entitled to 10 days of terminal holidays in the month of December.

(iv) A Full time teacher of University shall be eligible for 15 days of earned leave per year.

2. In respect of the grant of the following kinds of leave the provisions of Tamil Nadu Leave Rules will be applicable to the University employees (teaching and non-teaching) as amended from time to time, so far as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of the Statutes.

(i) Earned Leave

(ii) Maternity Leave

(iii) Unearned leave on medical certificate

(iv) Unearned leave on private affairs

(v) Study leave

(vi) Casual leave including special casual leave

(vii) Other types of leave as provided in the Tamil Nadu Leave Rules.

3. Sabbatical Leave

   (i) Eligibility: The Professors of the University shall be entitled for grant of Sabbatical leave for a period of one year at the end of every six years of continuous service in the Professor’s grade in the University, for study, research and writing purposes within the country or abroad.
(ii) Service: In reckoning the service in the Professor’s grade for this purpose, six years service rendered in this University without any break will be taken into account, i.e. it should not be intervened by any absence for a period exceeding three months of the University session (excluding vacation). For any absence for a period exceeding three months, service for an additional period of equal duration will have to be rendered for the completion of six years service for the purpose of Sabbatical leave.

(iii) Duration:

(a) Sabbatical leave shall be granted for a period of twelve months including vacations. Vacation or any other leave will not be allowed to be prefixed or suffixed with Sabbatical leave.

(b) Sabbatical leave may be granted in two spells of one year each only during the entire period of service of a Professor in the University, provided he/she has rendered approved service of not less than six years before each spell of Sabbatical leave.

(iv) Service benefits: During the period of Sabbatical leave, the professor shall be allowed to draw the increment on the due date and the period of leave shall also count as service for the purpose of pension/retirement benefits, provided that the professor rejoins the University on the expiry of his/her leave.

(v) Salary: During the period of Sabbatical leave the professor shall be paid full pay and allowance as otherwise admissible at the rates applicable to him/her immediately prior to his/her proceeding on Sabbatical leave and increased rates by way of accrual of increment etc. under Rule 4 above. The University shall not, however, fill up his/her post. The teaching and academic work in the Department shall be shared amongst the existing teachers in the department during the absence of the professor on Sabbatical leave.

(vi) Restrictions:

(a) A professor on Sabbatical leave shall not take up during the period of that leave, any regular appointment under another organisation in India or aboard.

(b) The professor shall submit the proposed programme to be followed during the Sabbatical leave to the University for approval along with the application for grant of leave. On return from leave, a report on the nature of study, research or writing undertaken during the period of leave shall be submitted to the University.

4. (a) The casual leave unless otherwise empowered shall be sanctioned by the Vice-Chancellor for the Heads of the Departments, Deans of Faculties, Registrar, Controller of Examinations and Finance Officer. The Heads of the Departments may sanction casual leave for the teaching and non-teaching staff of their departments and notify the Registrar through the concerned Dean. The Deans may sanction casual leave for the administrative personnel under their control and notify the Registrar.

(b) The Vice-Chancellor or the Registrar under delegation from the Vice-Chancellor shall sanction leave other than the casual leave to all categories of University employees.

5. Leave cannot be claimed as matter of right; and when the exigencies of the service demand, discretion to refuse or revoke leave of any description is vested with the authority empowered to grant it viz. the Syndicate, Vice-Chancellor, Dean and Heads of the Departments and such other authorities empowered.

6. A University employee on leave shall not accept or take any employment or service and receive any remuneration. Willful absence from duty after expiry of leave may be treated as misconduct, which will entail disciplinary action.

7. The University employee will be eligible for leave travel concession on the same terms as applicable to the employees of the Tamil Nadu Government.

8. The University employees will be eligible for Special Provident Fund-cum-Gratuity Scheme on the same terms as applicable to the employees of the Tamil Nadu Government.

XIII. Discipline and Control:

1. Causes for imposing penalties for a good and sufficient reason, including any breach of any of the Statute and laws of the University or negligence, inefficiency, insubordination or failure to show due diligence and attention in the discharge of his/her duties or failure to confirm to the instructions of his/her supervisors or any irregularities in the discharge of duties or any criminal offence involving moral turpitude, an employee of the University shall make himself/herself liable to the following penalties.
Minor penalties

(a) Censure;

(b) Stoppage of increment without cumulative effect; and

(c) Fine not exceeding Rs.10 at a time in the case of employees of Group D.

Major penalties

(a) Any period of suspension pending enquiry, either the whole or part of which may be treated as a substantive punishment;

(b) stoppage of increment with cumulative effect;

(c) reduction to a lower stage of pay or to a lower category of the University service; and

(d) removal or dismissal from the service.

Recovery of Losses: Recovery may be ordered by the competent authority of the loss if any, caused to the University by any act of commission/omission, in addition to any of the punishments mentioned under items (1) and (2) above.

(1) Disciplinary Authorities: The authorities competent to impose penalties and punishments and the appellate authorities and period allowed for appeal as indicated in Schedule VIII of this Statute.

The delay in preferring appeal upto fifteen days may be condoned by the appellate authorities. Any appeal to the Syndicate should be addressed to the Registrar who is the ex-officio secretary of the Syndicate.
(2) Power to suspend employees: The Vice-Chancellor in the case of any teaching staff and non-teaching employee of group A and B of the University and the Registrar in the case of non-teaching staff of C and D Group are empowered to place them under suspension, pending enquiry if in their opinion, the continuance of the employee in service will be detrimental either to the proposed enquiry or interest or reputation of the University.

Notwithstanding anything contained in the above clauses, the Vice-Chancellor may, when he/she deems necessary, suspend any employee pending enquiry.

(3) Period of suspension: Period of suspension should not normally exceed three months. Unless the period is extended beyond three months for specific reasons, over an order to be issued within the said three months, with the approval of the appellate authority, the suspension order shall be deemed to have been revoked.

(4) Subsistence allowance: During such period he/she shall received a subsistence allowance equivalent to 50% of his/her pay, but will not be entitled to draw any allowances or special pay, other than dearness allowance, related to the subsistence allowance.

(5) Review of subsistence allowance: A review may be made six months after the date of suspension for considering the sanction of subsistence allowance at an enhanced rate upto 75% of his/her pay, if the enquiry is prolonged for no fault of the employee concerned, after completion of six months.

(6) Authority to revoke suspension: The Registrar in cases where he/she himself/herself ordered the suspension of an employee can revoke the suspension order at any time. The Vice-Chancellor can revoke the orders of suspension issued by himself/herself or by the Registrar.

(7) Imposing minor and major penalties: Before imposing any of the minor penalties, the delinquent employee shall be given an opportunity to explain his/her position. Before inflicting any of the major penalties, the defaults of the delinquent employee shall be reduced to a form of charge and served on him/her. He/She shall be required to state whether there shall be an oral enquiry and/or oral hearing and if so the details of witnesses to be examined. On completion of that enquiry and/or oral hearing, the charges and the explanation of the delinquent employee should be examined and a verdict together with the punishment shall be recorded in writing and served on the delinquent employee.

(8) Supersession by the Vice-Chancellor: The Vice-Chancellor can take charge of the proceedings of an enquiry at any stage of the enquiry and report to the Syndicate.

Disciplinary action against employees appointed on Foreign Service terms:

(a) Pending enquiry, the Vice-Chancellor in the case of any teaching and non-teaching employee of Grade A and B who is appointed on foreign service terms in the University, the Registrar in the case of categories of non-teaching staff coming under C and D groups appointed under foreign service are empowered to place them under suspension if in their opinion, the continuance of the employee in service will be detrimental either to the proposed enquiry or interest/reputation of the University. Notwithstanding anything contained in the above clause the Vice-Chancellor may when he/she deemed necessary suspend any employee pending enquiry.

Provided further that the circumstances leading to the suspension of the employee shall be reported forthwith to the lending authority. The procedure prescribed in (3) to (7) of para XIII above will apply in full in respect of employees who are appointed on foreign service terms in the University. Provided that in a case where it is considered that the punishment of compulsory retirement, removal or dismissal should be imposed, the Vice-Chancellor/Registrar should complete the enquiry and revert the person concerned to the lending authority along with the above records and recommendations for such action as that authority may consider necessary.

Provided further that in a case where it is considered that minor punishment such as censure, stoppage of increment without cumulative effect should be imposed, the Vice-Chancellor/Registrar should complete the enquiry and consult the lending authority before imposing the penalty or leave it to the lending authority as per foreign service terms.

XIV. Conduct and Discipline:

1. No University employee shall take part in any act or movement which is calculated in the judgment of the Syndicate to bring the University into disrepute. It shall be the duty of everyone of the employees to honour the confidence reposed in him/her by the University and not to divulge any information obtained by him/her in the course of his/her official duties to outsiders or to make any use of which would be improper.
2. No University employee shall indulge in any criticism of the University administration in such manner as savours of defiance and insubordination or causes or is likely to cause embarrassment to the administration.

3. No University employee shall associate himself/herself with or take active part in politics. The Syndicate’s decision on this aspect of an employee’s conduct shall be final.

4. Employees shall not submit any applications directly, but they may submit their claims to higher post through proper channel.

5. A whole-time University employee may be entrusted with any work connected with the University, academic or administrative, as required by the proper authority without any liability to meet the claim for additional remuneration. He/She shall not accept while in University service additional employment or any employment on part-time basis with or without emoluments or honorary work without the previous sanction of the Vice-Chancellor or any other competent authority in writing.

6. Persons on appointment and employees on transfer to post dealing with cash, stores and other valuables including books shall at the discretion of the Syndicate furnish security to the University such amount and of such character as may be determined by the Syndicate. This shall be a condition attached to the post and shall not entitle the employee concern, who fills the post to claim any additional remuneration or compensation or privilege on this account.

7. The Syndicate reserves the right to frame suitable rules and amend or add to them.
8. The conduct and functioning of all those paid out of University funds shall be brought under the purview of the Director of Vigilance and Anti-Corruption constituted by the Government of Tamil Nadu. The Registrar/Vice-Chancellor shall be the authority to make the requisition for a preliminary enquiry and order a detailed enquiry by the Director of Vigilance and Anti-Corruption in respect of C and D groups and A and B groups respectively. In the case of the Vice-Chancellor, no preliminary enquiry shall be made by the Director of Vigilance and Anti-Corruption without a specific order of the Chancellor.

XV. Pension-cum-Gratuity:

Pension and gratuity will be applicable as per the Tamil Nadu Government Rules from time to time.

XVI. Travelling allowance and transfer travelling allowance:

1. Government and special rules:
   The Tamil Nadu travelling allowance rules are applicable to the University employees. The allowance and special rates shall be adopted for particular groups of officers of the University and members of the various authorities and committees as decided by the University from time to time.

2. Rules for exceptional cases: Provided that the Vice-Chancellor may, in exceptional cases, allow travelling allowance at the rates higher than that admissible as per para (1) above.

3. Transfer Travelling Allowance: As per Tamil Nadu Government Rules.
XVII. Provident Fund:

PROVIDENT FUND-CUM-INSURANCE SCHEME FOR THE EMPLOYEES OF THE TAMIL NADU Dr. AMBEDKAR LAW UNIVERSITY.

1. (1) Title: These Statutes shall be called “Provident Fund-cum-Insurance Scheme Statutes” for the employees of the Tamil Nadu Dr. Ambedkar Law University.

(2) Application: These Statutes shall apply to all the University teaching and non-teaching employees.

(3) In these Statutes, unless there is anything repugnant to the subject or context:

(i) ‘Fund’ shall mean the Provident Fund established and maintained under these Statues.

(ii) ‘Employees’ shall mean teaching and non-teaching employees of the Tamil Nadu Dr.Ambedkar Law University.

(iii) ‘University’ shall mean the Tamil Nadu Dr.Ambedkar Law University.

(iv) ‘Syndicate’ shall mean the Syndicate of the Tamil Nadu Dr.Ambedkar Law University.

(v) ‘Teachers’ shall mean the teaching staff as defined in the Act and Statutes.

(vi) ‘Non-teaching employees’ shall mean the administrative and establishment personnel.

(vii) ‘Pay’ includes, pay, substantive and officiating, special pay, personal pay, leave salary, all dearness allowances.
(viii) ‘Subscriber’ shall mean a person eligible to subscribe to the fund under these Statutes and subscribing thereto.

(ix) ‘Subscription’ shall mean the sum remitted to the fund by a subscriber under these Statutes.

2. The Statutes shall come into force from such date as notified, subject to the provision of these Statutes. Subscription to the fund shall be compulsory for all employees.

3. The fund shall be made up of

(a) Subscriptions; and

(b) Interest on the subscriptions and such other items credited to the University Provident Fund account by the University.

4. The corpus and all monies of the fund shall be invested in the Nationalised Banks as approved by the Syndicate on the recommendations of the Finance Committee.

5. (1) The minimum rate of subscription payable by each subscriber, based on his/her emoluments, shall be applicable as per the Government of Tamil Nadu Rules from time to time.

(2) The rate of interest, the temporary and part-final withdrawals shall be applicable as per the GPF rules applicable to the employees of Government of Tamil Nadu.
XVIII. Pension Fund Account:

1. A pension fund shall be constituted by the University into which contributions at the rate of 10% of the maximum of the time scale of pay of each employee shall be credited monthly. The pensionery commitments of the University shall be met out of this fund.

2. With the prior approval of the Syndicate the proceeds of the fund shall be invested in such manner as may be decided by the Vice-Chancellor with the view to earn advantageous rates of interest.

3. Transfer of Pension equivalent for teachers:

   (a) In respect of teachers who get themselves appointed in this University, having served in some other university/institution shall have the pension fund accumulated in other universities or institutions for the period of their service transferred to this university. In case the institution or university from where the teachers come to this University does not have pension scheme, the pensioner may himself pay such amount that would have accumulated in the pension fund if the institution/university where he/she was previously serving has a pension scheme and has maintained pension fund.

   (b) In respect of those teachers who have their pension fund accumulation in their previous institution transferred to this University or pay themselves the pension contributions that could have accumulated till they left the institution or the university wherein they served previously, the period of pensionable service shall be calculated taking into consideration the previous service also.
Provided that they contribute to the pension fund an equivalent to 10% per month of the maximum of the scale of pay of the posts they were holding within India prior to joining this University; or, in case their previous employment was outside India, they shall contribute to the Pension Fund a sum equal to 10% per month of the initial pay at which they are employed in this University.

(c) In case of teaching staff who get themselves appointed in other University/institution to better their prospects or for other reasons, and they applied through proper channel, the University shall calculate the pension fund accumulation in their accounts on the date of leaving the service of the University and transfer them to the University/institution wherein they have taken up employment provided there are such pension schemes in vogue in the University/institution where such persons are transferred.

XIX. Power to add or to amend:

The Syndicate shall be competent to alter or to add or to cancel any of the above Statutes, from time to time subject to the provisions contained in Sec. 23 of the Act.

XX. Interpretation:

On all question of interpretation of these Statutes the decision of the Syndicate of the University shall be final. On matters not specifically covered in the Service Statutes of the University employees, such rules governing the employees of Tamil Nadu Government shall apply unless otherwise decided by the Syndicate.

XXI. Savings:

Such other rules as are considered necessary to carry out the functions of the University will be framed by the Syndicate as and when necessary under the respective headings.
CHAPTER X
MISCELLANEOUS

a. For implementing the provisions of the Act, Statutes and Regulations and for other purposes not contained therein, the Vice-Chancellor shall prescribe the rules and guidelines which shall be communicated and followed by the employees and students.

b. It shall be competent for the Syndicate to appoint a Legal Adviser/Standing Counsel for the University for such period and on such terms as it may decide, to perform such duties as it may assign from time to time.

The Legal Adviser/Standing Counsel so appointed shall not be a member of any of the Authorities of the University.

c. The University shall provide to the students, to the extent possible, hostel accommodation and other housing facilities or permit to stay with guardian. The University shall, for the benefit of the students, provide and operate cafeteria, health, recreational, shopping and other ancillary facilities as may be deemed fit. The regulations in this regard shall be made by the Academic Senate.

d. In case any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of the Statutes, the Syndicate may pass such order as necessary for the purpose of removing the difficulty, provided such an order is not repugnant to the provisions of the Act.

Dr. (Mrs.) P. Nagabooshanam
Vice-Chancellor

REGULATIONS
THE TAMIL NADU
Dr. AMBEDKAR LAW UNIVERSITY

REGULATIONS

In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 42(1) of the Tamil Nadu Dr. Ambedkar Law University Act, 1996 (Act. 43 of 1997), the draft of the Regulations for affiliation and approval of new Law Colleges were placed before the Syndicate to deal with them for their disposal. After deliberations and discussions the Syndicate in its 68th Meeting held on 24.01.2006 resolved to approve the Regulations.

The Regulations shall come into effect from 24.01.2006.

Dr. S.S.P. Darwesh
Vice-Chancellor
REGULATIONS

AFFILIATION AND APPROVAL OF COLLEGES

GRANT OF AFFILIATION OR APPROVAL TO COLLEGES:

1. The Syndicate shall have the power to affiliate any college as an affiliated college or as an approved college within the university area.

2. The Syndicate shall have the power at any time after due enquiry to withdraw or suspend the affiliation or approval granted to a college:

   Provided that before taking a decision the Syndicate shall inform the management of the college concerned of its findings after the inquiry and provide an opportunity for making its representation on the findings.

PROCEDURE FOR GETTING AFFILIATION:

3. Any Educational agency which proposes to start a Law College shall obtain orders of the State Government permitting the agency to start the College before submitting its application seeking affiliation of the university.

   Where an existing college desirous of starting a new course or increase the strength of the college, the college shall submit an application and shall commence the new course or increase the strength only after getting prior approval of the University.

4. Every Educational Agency seeking affiliation for its Law College shall be registered as a Society under the Tamil Nadu Societies Registration Act or as a Trust Registered under the Indian Trusts Act.
5. A College applying for affiliation or approval shall send a formal letter to the Registrar between 1st of July and 31st of October preceding the Academic year in which the courses are proposed to be started and shall give full information which shall contain the following matters, viz:

(a) Constitution and names of the Managing Body.

(b) Courses for which affiliation or approval is sought.

(c) Accommodation, infrastructure facilities, the strength of the college, the number of students for whom provision has been made or is proposed to be made. The information relating to accommodation should be accompanied by drawings.

(d) Qualifications, salaries and service conditions of the teaching and non-teaching staff together with a timetable for the conduct of classes.

(e) Hostels, play-ground, and residence for the Principal.

6. The following application and affiliation fee shall be paid by the Educational agency for affiliation and approval.

(a) Application Fee Rs. 20,000/- for each course.

(b) Inspection Fee Rs. 20,000/- for each visit of the committee.

(c) Affiliation Fee Rs. 10 lakhs per course

7. The application and affiliation fee once paid are not refundable.

8. Government Colleges are exempted from the payment of Application fee and Affiliation fee only.
9. To get clearance from the Bar Council of India to start the College.

10. The Syndicate while considering an application for affiliation may call for any further materials or information which it may deem necessary before taking a decision in the matter. If the information called for is not conducive then the Syndicate may stipulate the time to recheck the application.

11. If the application is in order, sufficient materials and information are provided; the Syndicate shall constitute a Committee consisting of 2 Syndicate Members and Principal of affiliated Law College. It shall inspect the College and submit its report of inspection to the Syndicate for its consideration, within the time limit fixed.

12. The Syndicate may, after considering the report of the inspection committee and further materials as it may deem fit and with further enquiries, if necessary, grant or refuse affiliation or approval as the case may be.

Provided that if the Syndicate propose to refuse the Educational Agency’s affiliation or approval as the case may be, it shall give a reasonable opportunity to the college for making further references, if any, and shall consider the report before taking final decision.

REQUIREMENTS FOR STARTING A LAW COLLEGE:

13. Every College shall be managed by Constituted Managing Body wherein the Principal of the college shall also be a member of the committee provided that the above condition shall not apply to the Government Colleges.

14. Every change in the Constitution of the Managing Body shall be reported to the University immediately. The same may be placed before the Syndicate.
15. Every College shall satisfy the Syndicate that the college has adequate financial resources in the form of endowment. It shall be of not less than 50 lakhs and be provided by the Educational Agency and the amount shall be deposited in any nationalised bank and the receipts therefore shall be deposited with any nationalised bank and receipt to be submitted to the University.

Agreement in the prescribed format shall be executed with the educational agency.

16. The Minimum Land requirements for starting a Law College shall be as follows:
