

The Indian Student Law Review (ISLR) is the annual flagship journal of the School of Excellence in Law, Chennai, instituted in the year 2011. It is a student- edited, peer reviewed journal. The objective of ISLR is to provide a platform for innovative legal minds to exhibit ideas and opinions. ISLR is devoted to attract the best quality legal articles from students, academicians, researchers, representatives of the legal fraternity and others irrespective of their legal background.

The first edition of ISLR published in 2011, featured pieces authored by a Chief Justice, Judges of the Supreme Court and High Court as well as Senior Counsels practicing at the Indian Bar, several legal luminaries and academicians. The first issue garnered remarkable appreciation across the country.

ISLR has now successfully entered its sixth year of publication. The Indian Student Law Review (ISLR); ISSN 2249-4391 has a summer and a winter edition of the journal publication which is both available as print and digital. Every edition encompasses a detailed emphasis on the contemporary developments in the Indian legal system.

The theme for this year's journal (2021-22) is 'Contemporary Socio-legal issues'

CALL FOR PAPERS

The Editorial Board of the Indian Student Law Review [ISLR] is pleased to invite original, unpublished manuscripts for publication in the 2021-2022 issue of the journal in the form of Articles, Notes and Book Reviews.
