The Blood donation camp organized by The Tamil Nadu Dr. Ambedkar Law University National Cadet Corps [TNDALUNCC] which was held on 03/04/2024 at Amenities Block. More than 100 cadets from TNDALUNCC participated and volunteered to organise the blood donation camp. The event aimed to raise awareness about the importance of blood donation and encourage students, faculty, and staff to contribute to this noble cause. With the collaboration of Royapettah Government Hospital, the camp successfully facilitated the donation process and garnered significant participation from the college community. It was held in the presence of Col. Prof. Dr. N.S. Santhosh Kumar Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, TNDALU and Dr. Thamizh Mani Dean, Royapettah Govt. Hospital. Around 100 pints of blood were donated in a single day, from the college community.

In the weeks leading up to the event, a dedicated team of cadets worked tirelessly to promote the blood donation camp across the campus. Various promotional activities such as poster campaigns, social media announcements, and classroom presentations were conducted to engage and inform students about the event. Additionally, information about eligibility criteria, benefits of donation, and safety precautions was disseminated to ensure widespread understanding and participation.

On the day of the event, the campus buzzed with anticipation as students, faculty, and staff gathered at the designated venue. Registration desks were set up to facilitate the smooth flow of donors, with volunteers guiding participants through the initial screening process.

IMPACT OF THE EVENT:

The blood donation camp witnessed an overwhelming response from the college community, with a large number of students, faculty, and staff coming forward to donate blood. The event served as a testament to the altruism and compassion of individuals, as they selflessly contributed to the lifesaving cause. Donors expressed a sense of pride and fulfilment in knowing that their donations would make a difference in the lives of those in need.

In the aftermath of the blood donation camp, organizers conducted follow-up sessions to gather feedback from donors and assess the overall success of the event.

Donors were provided with information about post-donation care and encouraged to continue their support for blood donation initiatives in the future. Additionally, the college expressed its gratitude to all participants and volunteers for their unwavering commitment and dedication to the cause.

The blood donation camp at The Tamil Nadu Dr. Ambedkar Law University was a resounding success where more than 100 pints of blood were collected, grateful to the collective efforts of organizers, volunteers, and donors. Through their generosity and compassion, the college community reaffirmed its commitment to making a positive impact on society. As we reflect on the success of this event, let us continue to champion the cause of blood donation and inspire others to join us in saving lives one donation at a time.
