REPORT: "BYTES AND BATTLES: WOMEN DEFYING TECH ODDS"

PANEL DISCUSSION

On March 8th, 2025, the Department of Cyber Space Law and Justice, School of Excellence in Law, The Tamil Nadu Dr. Ambedkar Law University, commemorated International Women's Day with a panel discussion titled "BYTES AND BATTLES: WOMEN DEFYING TECH ODDS." The webinar, conducted via Cisco Webex from 11:00 AM to 12:30 PM, aimed to illuminate the significant contributions of women in technology and law, while addressing the multifaceted challenges they encounter.

The event, organized under the esteemed guidance of Chief Patron, Col. Prof. (Dr) N. S. Santhosh Kumar, Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, TNDALU; Patron Prof. Dr. Gowri Ramesh, Registrar, TNDALU; Director of the Panel Discussion, Prof. Dr. V. Balaji, Dean & HOD (i/c) ,Department of Maritime Law, TNDALU and Convenor, Prof. Dr. Ranjith Oommen Abraham, Head of the Department(I/C), Dept. of Cyber Space Law and Justice. The panel discussion was attended by 70 participants.

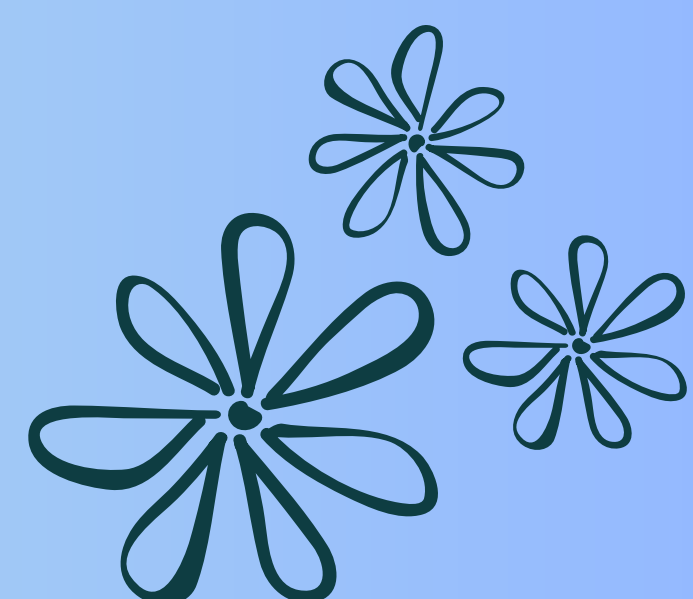

The event was initiated by student co-ordinator Ms. Jothi Poorna S, who provided a warm welcome, followed by an inspiring welcome address from Assistant Professor Ms.T. Dhivya. The panel discussion, skilfully and seamlessly moderated by Assistant Professor Ms. G.V. Vidhusa, featured distinguished panelists Dr. R. Deepalakshmi, Assistant Professor ,SOEL, TNDALU, and Ms. Anu Narendran, Founder of Bonafide Legal, Chennai.

Dr. R. Deepalakshmi, through her presentation aided by a detailed PowerPoint, highlighted the vulnerabilities women face in the online sphere, detailing various types of cybercrimes targeting women. She emphasized the risks associated with sharing sensitive information with strangers, leading to regret, societal problems, and the spread of viruses.

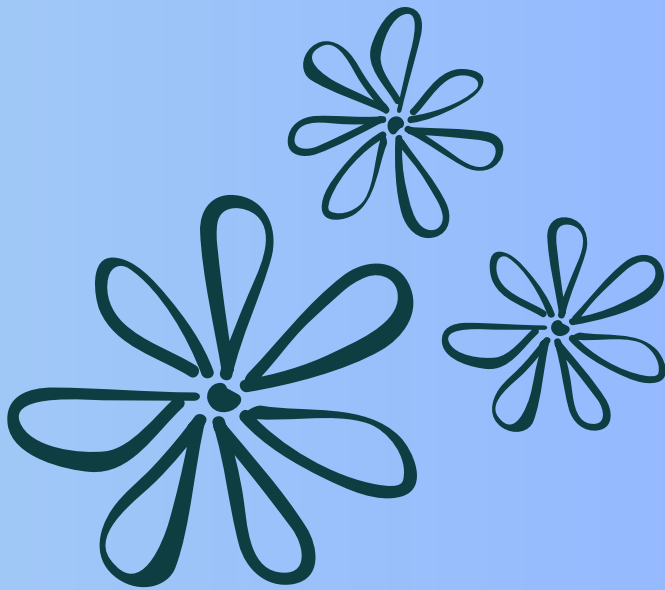

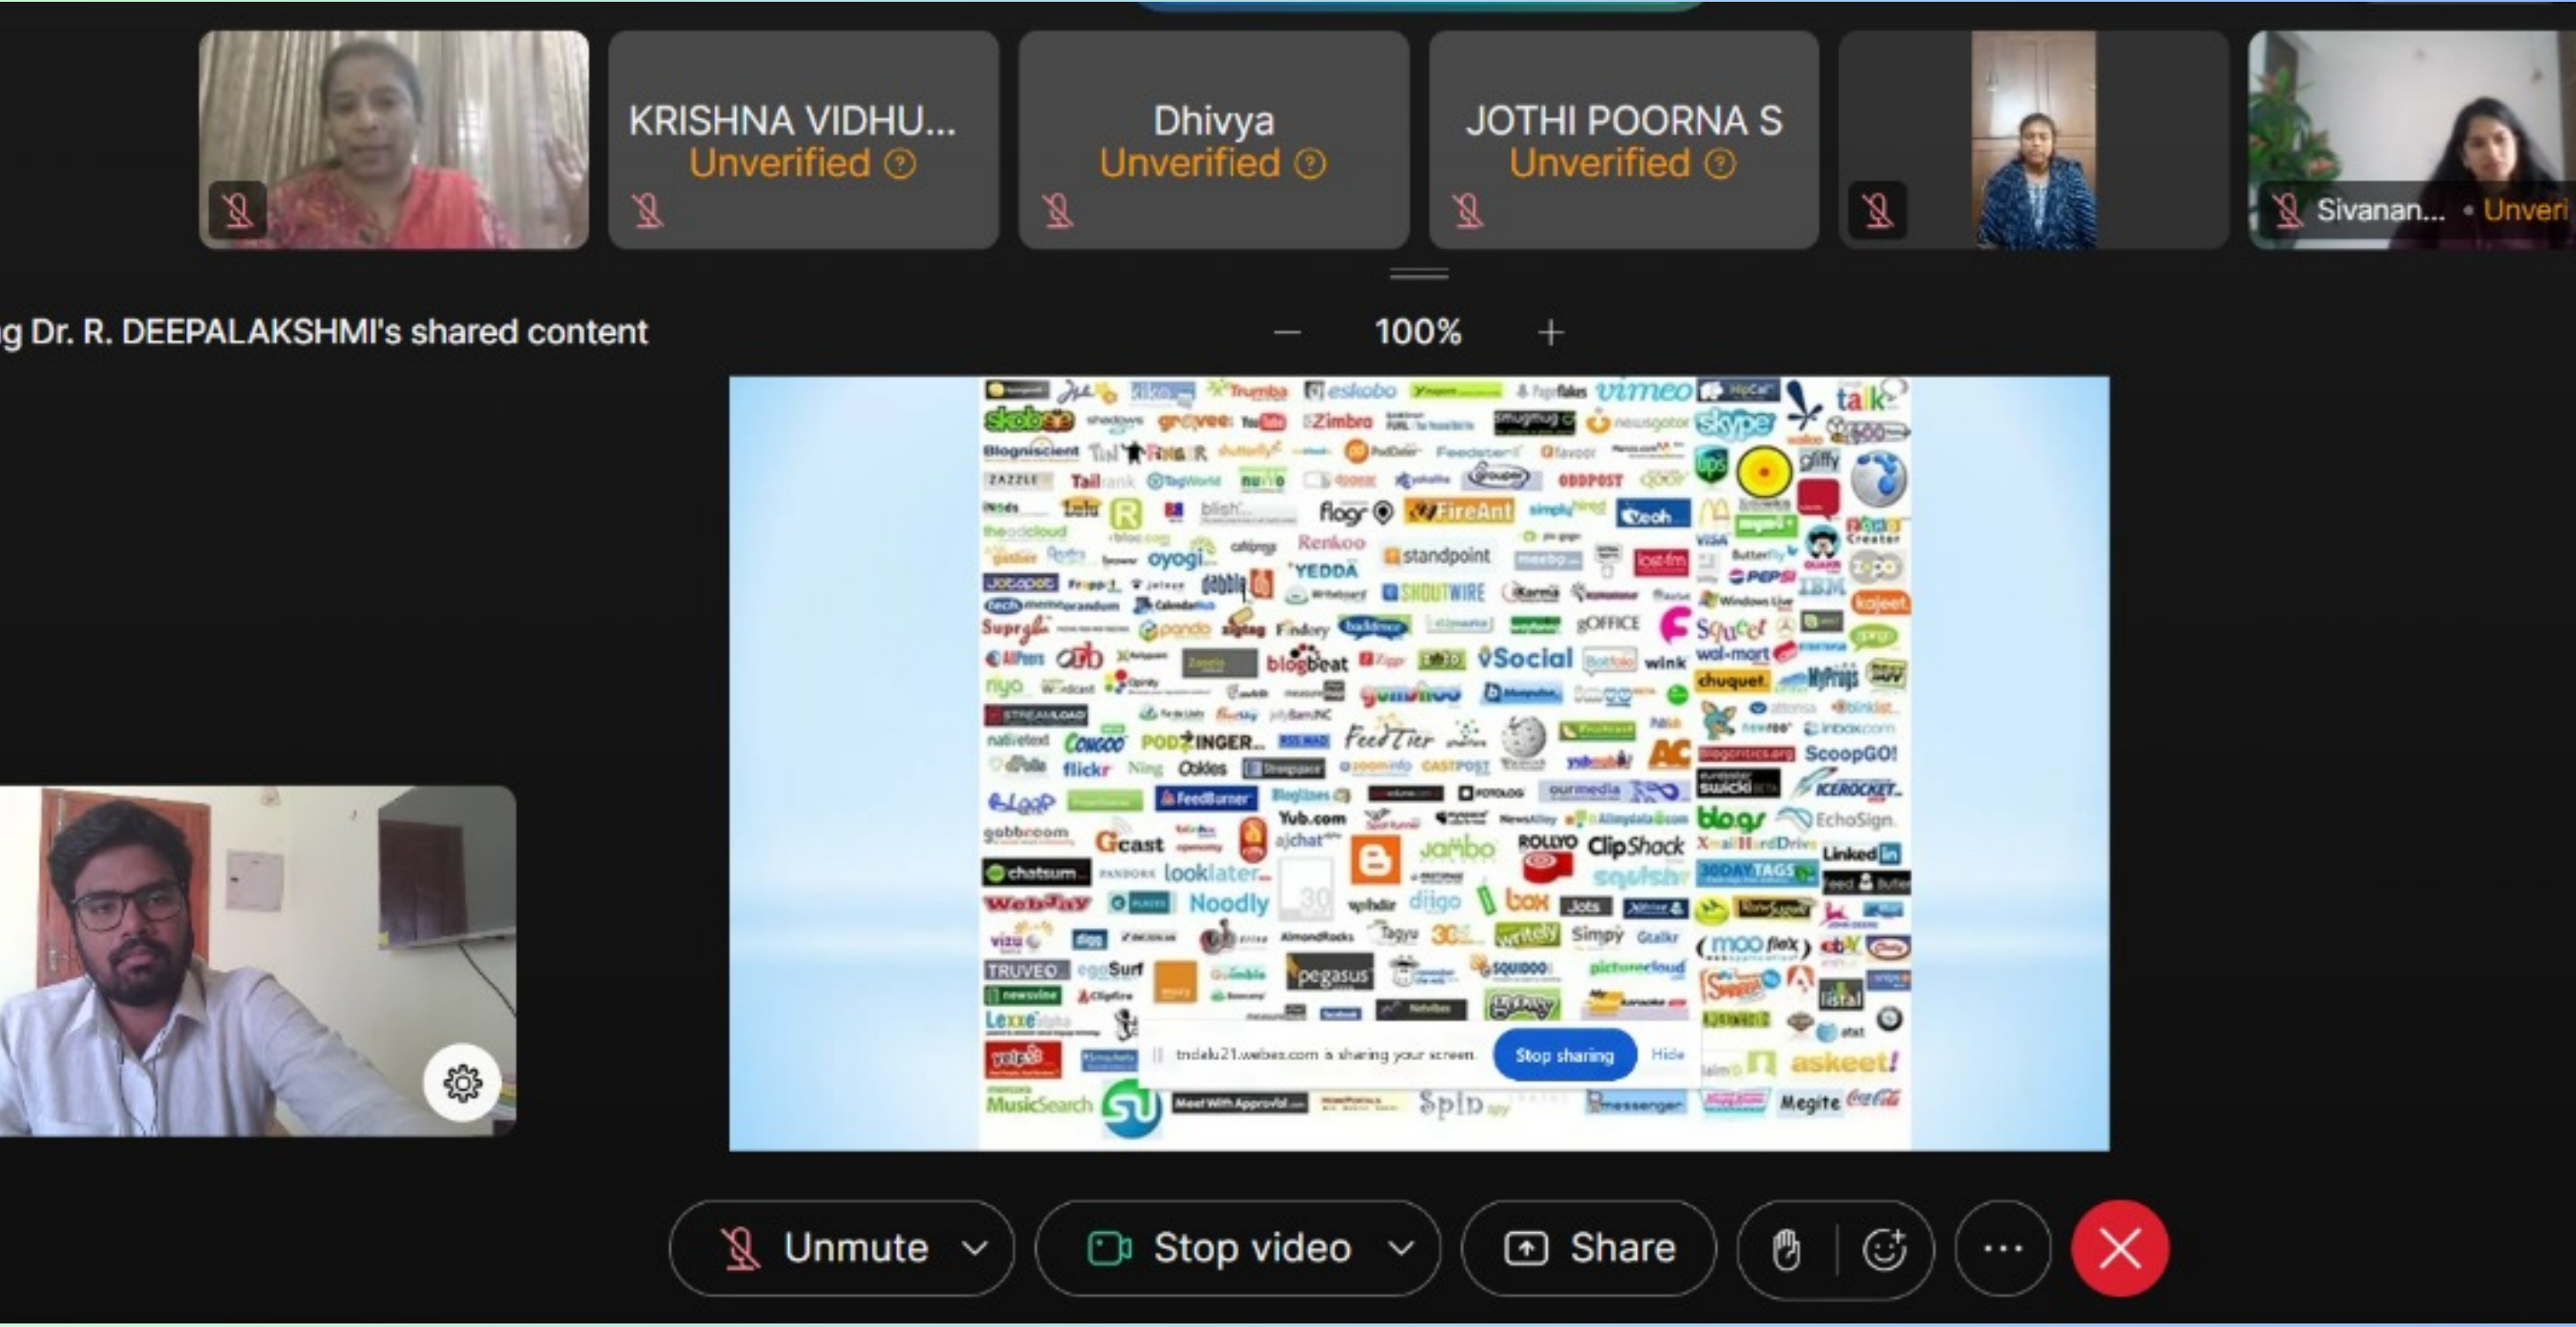

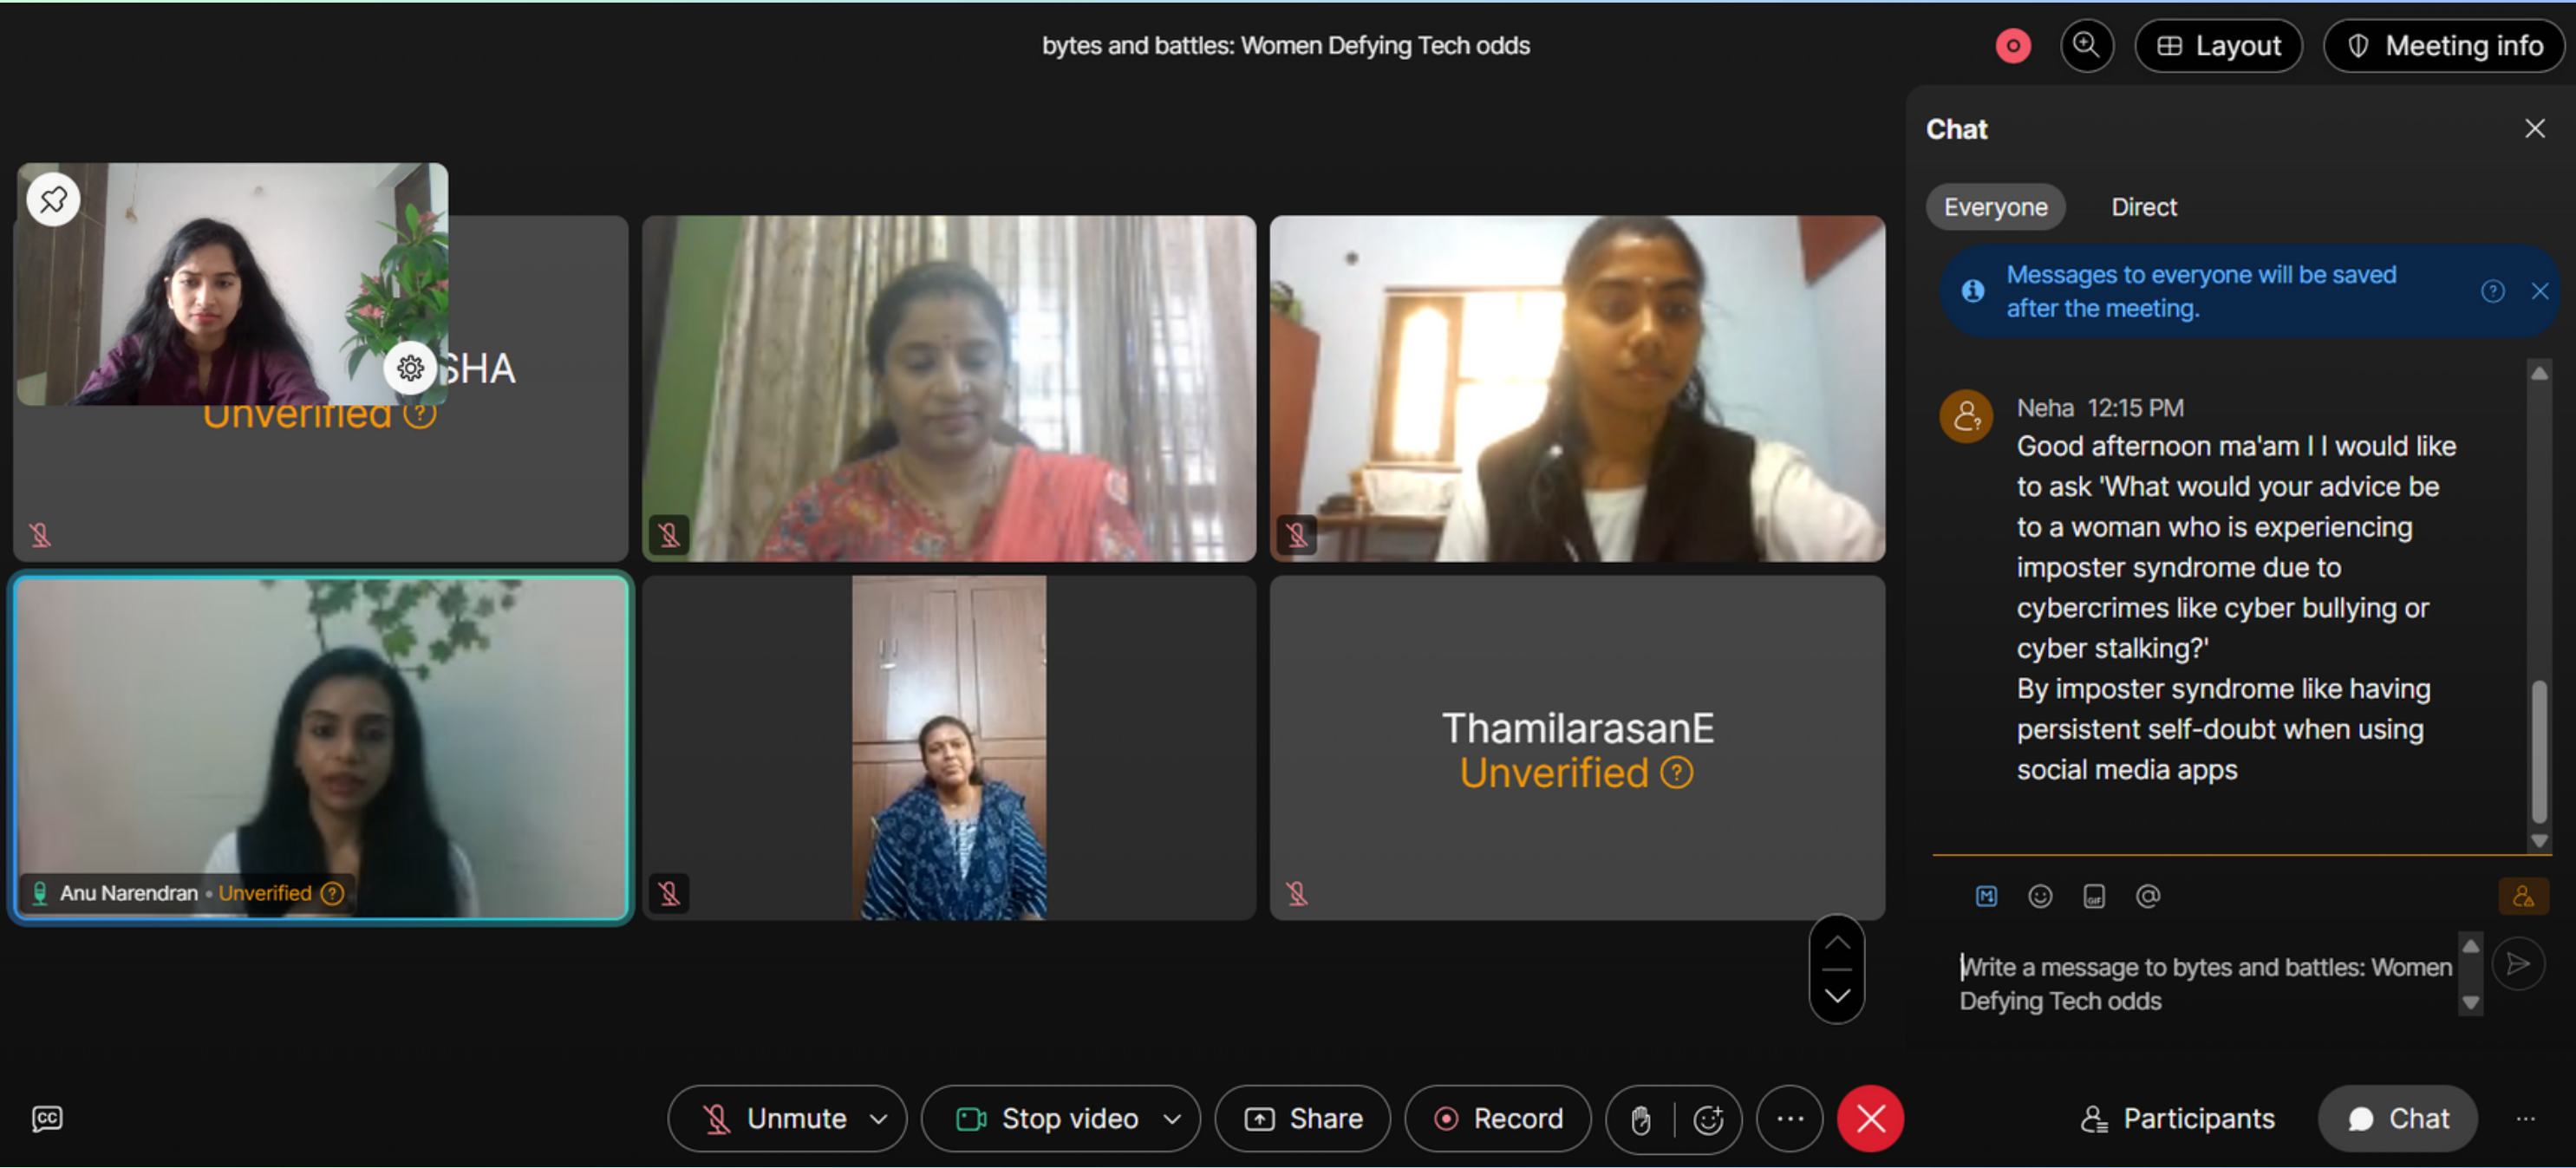

Ms. Anu Narendran, leveraging her extensive legal expertise, provided practical legal advice and solutions to address the cyber challenges discussed by Dr.R. Deepalakshmi, offering strategies to tackle these issues effectively.

The discussion covered pivotal topics such as achieving success in tech and law, the intersection of these domains from a women's perspective, and the specific cyber-security risks women face.

Faculty coordinators Ms. S.T. Sunitha Rai, Ms. T. Dhivya, and Mr. S. Gokul Prasad, along with student coordinators Mr. Thamilarasan E, Ms. Samritha K R, and Ms. Jothi Poorna S, ensured the seamless execution of the event. The session concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks delivered by Ms. S.T. Sunitha Rai, Assistant Professor, Dept of Cyber Space Law and Justice, SOEL, TNDALU expressing profound gratitude to the panelists, moderator, and participants for their valuable contributions. The webinar successfully fostered an insightful dialogue, enhancing understanding of the challenges and opportunities for women in the technology and legal sectors, especially concerning online safety.
